THE DEVOTIONS

OF

Lucas
BISHOP ANDREWES,

Translated from the Greek

AND ARRANGED ANEW.

NEW-YORK :
STANFORD AND SWORDS, 137, BROADWAY.

1850.

PREFACE

TO THE

AMERICAN EDITION.

IN putting forth an American edition of Bishop Andrewe's Devotions, the following suggestions as to their two-fold character, as Forms of Prayer, and as Testimony to The Faith, are humbly submitted :

First. The forms of Devotion in this work not being full drawn out, but given as heads of thoughts, and as it were, a Brief of Prayers, are singularly suggestive in their nature, and thereby, best adapted for general use and to meet variety of cases ; thus considered, they may be employed as guides either in Prayer, Self-Examination, or Meditation ; and their language being principally drawn from Scripture, is common, and acceptable to all, and at the same time, deep, rich, and universal, and suitable to all degrees of spiritual attainment.

We would also call attention to the distinct separation of the various Acts of Devotion, as Preparation, Confession, Profession of Faith, Intercession, Commendation and Commemoration of the Living and Departed, Prayer for grace, and Praise, as of value, not only in securing variety, point and fulness, for our individual petitions, but also, in raising our minds to a due estimation of the magnitude of this duty, in those who count themselves members of the Communion of Saints.

The choicest excellence however, of this Work, lies in the largeness of Mind and the boundless Charity which it evinces, and which it is calculated to produce in those who use it: a spirit of universality and multifariousness pervades its petitions, so that we may reverently say here is "God's plenty" and God's truth; and, moreover, it should be particularly noted that this overflowing Charity in the heart, has for its foundation The Faith in the mind of the Writer, so that if we would attain to the same Gift, we must lay the same claim, and if we would unlock the same fountain, we must use the same key.

Second. The Work evinces a deep and earnest belief in The Faith.

The Unity of the Godhead. The Consubstantiality and Coequality in all Divine Attributes of the Three Persons in the Blessed Trinity.

The subordination among the Three by necessity of being; whereby the Father by necessary existence is of none. The Son by the same is of the Father. The Holy Ghost by the same is of the Father and the Son.

The official subordination among the Three in the Creation and Redemption of Man by mutual agreement and voluntary condescension; whereby the Father by Office is the Maker and Ruler of the World. The Son by the same is the Minister of the Father and the Mediator between God and Man. The Holy Ghost by the same is the Minister of the Father and the Son and the Sanctifier of the Elect People of God.

The Son was made Flesh through a conception by the Holy Ghost, in the womb of the Blessed Virgin, and raised Human Nature, in His Person, to a conformity with the Divine; collecting within It by birth and inheritance all the treasures of the Divine Wisdom and Grace and all Power in Heaven and Earth, and putting the Seal of Divinity upon It by giving It to have Life in Itself so as to be a Source of Life to others: and by His Sacrifice eternally pleaded, in an unremitted Intercession, obtains for his fellow-men the privilege of participating in Him of this renewed Flesh and its rich Inheritance.

The visible Church Catholic to which He has sent the Holy Ghost is His Body through which He communicates Himself to us on Earth, uniting us to Himself in the Sacraments, and causing us mysteriously to partake of His Humanity, which is also a quickening Spirit, and through It and in Him to participate in that rich Inheritance which He who is both God and Man has purchased for us.

As touching the venerated author, it may be added, that not only in this Faith would it appear that this work was compiled, but to the maintainance of It also, and of that enlarged charity which it exhibits, was it devoted; for the single manuscript of it which was left was found worn away by his fingers and blotted with his tears; so that in it he has left us not only a rich collection of Christian devotions, but also a touching example how to use them.

In all places where I record My Name, I will come to thee, and I will bless thee. Exod. xx. 24.

Let^b Thine eyes be open towards this house night and day, even toward the place of which Thou hast said, My Name shall be there; that Thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which Thy servant shall make towards this place. 1 Kings viii. 29.

Thou that hearest the prayer
unto Thee shall all flesh come.

^b Transferred from pp. 5, 6, and 9, of Edition 1675.

The fierceness of man shall turn to Thy praise, and the fierceness of them shalt Thou refrain.

As for me, I will come into Thy house even upon the multitude of Thy mercy.

and in Thy fear will I worship toward Thy Holy Temple.

Hear the voice of my humble petitions,
when I cry unto Thee ;
when I hold up my hands towards the mercy-seat of Thy Holy Temple.

We wait for Thy loving-kindness, O God, in the midst of Thy Temple.

of Matin Prayer.

LITANY.

Glory be to Thee, O Lord, Glory to Thee, Glory to Thee who givest me sleep
to recruit my weakness, and to remit the toils
of this fretful flesh.
To this day and all days,
a perfect, holy, peaceful, healthy, sinless course, Vouchsafe O Lord.

The Angel of peace, a faithful guide, guardian of souls and bodies,
to encamp around me,
and ever to prompt what is salutary,
Vouchsafe O Lord.

Pardon and remission

of all sins and of all offences
Vouchsafe O Lord.

To our souls what is good and convenient,
and peace to the world,
Vouchsafe O Lord.

Repentance and strictness
for the residue of our life, and health and peace to the end,
Vouchsafe O Lord.

Whatever is true, whatever is honest, whatever just, whatever pure,
whatever lovely, whatever of good report,
if there be any virtue, if any praise,
such thoughts, such deeds,
Vouchsafe O Lord,

A Christian close,
without sin, without shame,
and, should it please Thee, without pain,
and a good answer
at the dreadful and fearful judgment-seat
of Jesus Christ our Lord, Vouchsafe O Lord.

ORDER OF MATIN PRAYER.

CONFESSON.

Essence beyond essence, Nature increate, Framer of the world,

I set Thee, Lord, before my face, and I lift up my soul unto Thee.

I worship Thee on my knees,
and humble myself under Thy mighty hand.

I stretch forth my hands unto Thee,
my soul gaspeth unto Thee as a thirsty land.

I smite on my breast
and say with the Publican, God be merciful to me a sinner,
the chief of sinners ;
to the sinner above the Publican, be merciful as to the Publican.

Father of mercies,
I beseech Thy fatherly affection, despise me not
an unclean worm, a dead dog, a putrid corpse, despise not Thóu the work of Thine own hands, despise not Thine own image though branded by sin.

Lord, if Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean,

Lord, only say the word, and I shall be cleansed.

And Thou, my Saviour Christ,

Christ my Saviour,

Saviour of sinners, of whom I am chief,

despise me not, despise me not, O Lord, despise not the cost of Thy blood,

who am called by Thy Name ;

but look on me with those eyes with which Thou didst look upon

Magdalene at the feast,

Peter in the hall,

the thief on the wood ;—

that with the thief I may entreat Thee humbly,

Remember me, Lord, in Thy kingdom ;

that with Peter I may bitterly weep and say,

O that mine eyes were a fountain of tears,

that I might weep day and night ;

that with Magdalene I may hear Thee say,

Thy sins be forgiven Thee, and with her may love much,

for many sins yea manifold have been forgiven me.

And Thou, All-Holy, Good, and Life-giving Spirit, despise me not, Thy breath, despise not Thine own holy things ;

but turn Thee again, O Lord, at the last,
and be gracious unto Thy servant.

COMMENDATION.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord,
Our God,
the God of our Fathers;
who turnest the shadow of death into the morning;
and lightenest the face of the earth;
who separatest darkness from the face of the light;
and banishest night and bringest back the day;
who lightenest mine eyes,
that I sleep not in death;
who deliverest me from the terror by night,
from the pestilence that walketh in darkness;
who drivest sleep from mine eyes,
and slumber from mine eyelids;
who makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to praise Thee;
because I laid me down and slept and rose up again,
for the Lord sustained me;
because I waked and beheld,
and my sleep was sweet unto me.
Blot out as a thick cloud my transgressions, and as a cloud my sins ;

grant me to be a child of light, a child of the day,
to walk soberly, holily, honestly, as in the day,
vouchsafe to keep me this day without sin.

Thou who upholdest the falling and liftest the fallen,
let me not harden my heart in provocation,
or temptation or deceitfulness of any sin.

Moreover, deliver me to-day from the snare of the hunter and from the noisome pestilence ;
from the arrow that flieth by day,
from the sickness that destroyeth in the noon day.

Defend this day against my evil, against the evil of this day defend Thou me.

Let not my days be spent in vanity, nor my years in sorrow.

One day telleth another,
and one night certifieth another.

O let me hear Thy loving-kindness betimes in the morning,

for in Thee is my trust ;
shew Thou me the way that I should walk in,
for I lift up my soul unto Thee.

Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies, for I flee unto Thee.

Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth Thee,
for Thou art my God ;

Let Thy loving Spirit lead me forth into the land of righteousness.

Quicken me, O Lord, for Thy Name's sake, and for Thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble ;

remove from me foolish imaginations, inspire those which are good and pleasing in Thy sight.

Turn away mine eyes
lest they behold vanity ;
let mine eyes look right on,
and let mine eyelids look straight before me.

Hedge up mine ears with thorns lest they incline to undisciplined words.

Give me early the ear to hear,
and open mine ears to the instruction of Thy oracles.

Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth, and keep the door of my lips.

Let my word be seasoned with salt, that it may minister grace to the hearers.

Let no need be grief unto me,
Nor offence of heart.

Let me do some work

for which Thou wilt remember me, Lord, for good, and spare me according to the greatness of Thy mercy.

Into Thine hands I commend
my spirit, soul, and body,
which Thou hast created, redeemed, regenerated, O Lord, Thou God of truth; and together with me
all mine and all that belongs to me,
Thou hast vouchsafed them to me,
Lord, in Thy goodness.
Guard us from all evil,
guard our souls,
I beseech Thee, O Lord.
Guard us without falling,
and place us immaculate in the presence of Thy glory in that day.

Guard my going out and my coming in henceforth and for ever.

Prosper, I pray Thee, Thy servant this day, and grant him mercy

in the sight of those who meet him.

O God, make speed to save me,

O Lord, make haste to help me.

O turn Thee then unto me,

And have mercy upon me;
give Thy strength unto Thy servant,
and help the son of Thine handmaid.

Shew some token upon me for good,
that they who hate me may see it and be ashamed, because Thou, Lord, hast holpen me and comforted me.

of Evening Prayer^a.

MEDITATION.

The day is gone,
and I give Thee thanks, O Lord.

Evening is at hand,
make it bright unto us.

As day has its evening

So also has life ;
the even of life is age,
age has overtaken me,
make it bright unto us.

Cast me not away in the time of age ;
forsake me not when my strength faileth me.

Even to my old age be Thou He,
and even to hoar hairs carry me ;
do Thou make, do Thou bear,
do Thou carry and deliver me.

Abide with me, Lord,
for it is toward evening,
and the day is far spent of this fretful life.

Let Thy strength be made perfect in my weakness.

Day is fled and gone,
life too is gone,
This lifeless life.
Night cometh,
and cometh death,
the deathless death.

Near as is the end of day,
so too the end of life.

We then, also remembering it, beseech of Thee
for the close of our Life,
that Thou wouldest direct it in peace, Christian, acceptable,
sinless, shameless,
and, if it please Thee, painless, Lord, O Lord,
gathering us together
under the feet of Thine elect,

when Thou wilt, and as Thou wilt,
only without shame and sins.

Remember we the days of darkness,
for they shall be many,
lest we be cast into outer darkness.

Remember we to outstrip the night doing some good thing.

Near is judgment ;—

a good and acceptable answer
at the dreadful and fearful judgment-seat
of Jesus Christ
vouchsafe to us, O Lord.

By night I lift up my hands in the sanctuary, and praise the Lord.

The Lord hath granted His loving-kindness in the day time ;

and in the night season did I sing of Him,
and made my prayer unto the God of my life.

As long as I live will I magnify Thee on this manner, and lift up my hands in Thy Name.

Let my prayer be set forth in Thy sight
as the incense,

and let the lifting up of my hands
be an evening sacrifice.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord, our God,

the God of our fathers,
who hast created the changes of days and nights,
who givest songs in the night,
who hast delivered us from the evil of this day,
who hast not cut off like a weaver my life,
nor from day even to night made an end of me.

Lord,
as we add day to day,
so sin to sin.
The just falleth seven times a day ;
and I, an exceeding sinner, seventy times seven ;
a wonderful, a horrible thing, O Lord.
But I turn with groans
from my evil ways,
and I return into my heart,
and with all my heart I turn to Thee, O God of penitents and Saviour of sinners ;
and evening by evening I will return in the innermost marrow of my soul ;
and my soul out of the deep crieth unto Thee.
I have sinned, O Lord, against Thee, heavily against Thee ;

alas, alas, woe is me ! for my misery.
I repent, O me ! I repent, spare me, O Lord,
I repent, O me, I repent, help Thou my impenitence.
Be appeased, spare me, O Lord ;
be appeased, have mercy on me ;
I said, Lord, have mercy upon me,
heal my soul, for I have sinned against Thee.
Have mercy upon me, O Lord,
after Thy great goodness,
according to the multitude of Thy mercies
do away mine offences.
Remit the guilt,
heal the wound,
blot out the stains,
clear away the shame,
rescue from the tyranny,
and make me not a public example.
O bring Thou me out of my trouble.
cleanse Thou me from secret faults,
keep back Thy servant also from presumptuous sins,
My wanderings of mind and idle talking
lay not to my charge.

Remove the dark and muddy flood of foul and wicked thoughts.

O Lord,

I have destroyed myself ;
whatever I have done amiss, pardon mercifully.

Deal not with us after our sins, neither reward us after our iniquities.

Look mercifully upon our infirmities ;
and for the glory of thy All-holy Name,
turn from us all those ills and miseries,
which by our sins, and by us through them,
are most righteously and worthily deserved.

3. COMMENDATION.

To my weariness, O Lord, vouchsafe Thou rest,
to my exhaustion
renew Thou strength.

Lighten mine eyes that I sleep not in death.

Deliver me from the terror by night,
the pestilence that walketh in darkness.

Supply me with healthy sleep, and to pass through this night without fear.

O Keeper of Israel,
who neither slumberest nor sleepest, guard me this night from all evil, guard my soul, O Lord.

Visit me with the visitation of Thine own, reveal to me wisdom in the visions of the night.

If not, for I am not worthy, not worthy,
at least, O loving Lord, let sleep be to me a breathing time
as from toil, so from sin.

Yea, O Lord,
nor let me in my dreams imagine what may anger Thee,
what may defile me.

Let not my loins be filled with illusions,
yea, let my reins chasten me in the night season,
yet without grievous terror.

Preserve me from the black sleep of sin ;
all earthly and evil thoughts put to sleep within me.

Grant to me light sleep, rid of all imaginations fleshly and satanical.

Lord, Thou knowest
how sleepless are my unseen foes, and how feeble my wretched flesh,
who madest me ;

shelter me with the wing of Thy pity;
awaken me at the fitting time,
the time of prayer;
and give me to seek Thee early,
for Thy glory, and for Thy service.

Here use the form of Intercession, No. 3.

Into Thy hands, O Lord, I commend myself,
my spirit, soul, and body :
Thou didst make, and didst redeem them ;
and together with me, all my friends and all that belongs to me.
Thou hast vouchsafed them to me, Lord,
in Thy goodness.
Guard my lying down and my rising up,
from henceforth and for ever.
Let me remember Thee on my bed,
and search out my spirit ;
let me wake up and be present with Thee ;
let me lay down in peace, and take my rest ;
for it is Thou, Lord, only that makest me dwell in safety.

Course of Prayers for the Week.

THE FIRST DAY.

INTRODUCTION.

Through the tender mercies of our God
the day-spring from on high hath visited us.

Glory be to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.

Creator of the light,

and Enlightener of the world,— of the visible light,

the Sun's ray, a flame of fire,

day and night,

evening and morning.—

of the light invisible,

the revelation of God,

writings of the Law,

oracles of Prophets,

music of Psalms,

instruction of Proverbs, experience of Histories,—

light which never sets.
God is the Lord who hath shewed us light ;
bind the sacrifice with cords, yea even unto the horns of the altar.

O by Thy resurrection raise us up unto newness of life, supplying to us frames of repentance.
The God of peace,
who did bring again from the dead
the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant,
our Lord Jesus Christ, perfect us in every good work,
to do His will,
working in us what is acceptable before Him,
through Jesus Christ,
to whom be glory for ever.

Thou who didst send down on Thy disciples
on this day
Thy Thrice-Holy Spirit, withdraw not Thou the gift, O Lord, from us, but renew it in us, day by day,
who ask Thee for it.

(1.) CONFESSION.

Merciful and pitiful Lord,
long-suffering and full of pity,
I have sinned, Lord, I have sinned against Thee ;

O me, wretched that I am,
I have sinned, Lord, against Thee, much and grievously,
in attending on vanities and lies.

I conceal nothing :

I make no excuses.

I give Thee glory, O Lord, this day,
I denounce against myself my sins ;
Truly I have sinned before the Lord,
and thus and thus have I done,

I have sinned and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not.

And what shall I now say ?

or with what shall I open my mouth ?

What shall I answer, seeing I have done it ?

Without plea, without defence, self-condemned, am I.

Unto Thee, O Lord, belongeth righteousness, but unto me confusion of face, because Thou art just in all that is come upon me ;

for Thou hast done right,
but I have done wickedly.
And now, Lord, what is my hope ?
Truly my hope is even in Thee,
if hope of salvation remain to me, if Thy loving-kindness cover the multitude of my iniquities.
O remember, what my substance is,
the work of Thine hands,
the likeness of Thy countenance,
the cost of Thy blood,
a name from Thy Name,
a sheep of Thy pasture,
a son of the covenant,
Despise not Thou the work of Thine own hands.
Hast thou made for nought Thine own image and likeness ?
for nought, if Thou destroy it.
And what profit is there in my blood ?
Thine enemies will rejoice ;
May they never rejoice, O Lord !
Grant not to them my destruction.
Look upon the face of Thine Anointed.
and in the Blood of Thy covenant,
the propitiation for the sins of the whole world,

Lord, be propitious unto me, a sinner ;
even unto me, O Lord, of sinners chief, chiefest and greatest ;
For Thy Name's sake be merciful unto my sin,
for it is great : it exceeds.
For Thy Name's sake, that Name, beside which, none other under heaven is given among men,
whereby we must be saved,
the Spirit Himself helping our infirmities, and making intercession for us,
with plaints unutterable.
For the tender yearnings of the Father,
the bloody wounds of the Son,
the unutterable plaints of the Spirit, give ear, O Lord, have mercy, O Lord, O Lord, hearken and do ;
defer not, for Thine own sake, O my God.
For me, I forget not my sins,
they are ever before me ;
I remember them in the bitterness of my soul ;
I am anxious about them ;
I turn away and groan,
I have indignation and revenge and wrath against myself.

I despise and bruise my own self,
that my penitence, Lord, O Lord, is not deeper, is not fuller ;
help Thou mine impenitence.

And more, and still more, pierce Thou, rend, crush my heart ;
and remit, forgive, pardon
what things are grief to me, and offence of heart.

Cleanse Thou me from secret faults,
and keep Thy servant also from presumptuous sins.
Magnify Thy mercies towards the wretched sinner ;
and in season, Lord, say to me, -

Be of good cheer ; thy sins are forgiven thee ;
My grace is sufficient for thee.

Say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

Why art thou so heavy, O my soul ?
and why art thou so disquieted within thee ?

Return unto thy rest, O my soul,
for the Lord hath rewarded thee.

O Lord, rebuke me not in Thine indignation, neither chasten me in Thy displeasure.

I said, I will confess my sins unto the Lord,
and so Thou forgavest the wickedness of my sin.

Lord, Thou knowest all my desire,
and my groaning is not hid from Thee.

Have mercy upon me, O God,
after Thy great goodness,
according to the multitude of Thy mercies
do away mine offences.

Thou shalt arise, and have mercy on me, O Lord, for it is time that Thou have mercy upon me,
yea, the time is come.

If Thou, O Lord, shouldst mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand ?

Enter not into judgment with Thy servant, O Lord, for in Thy sight shall no man living be justified.

(2.) PRAYER FOR GRACE.

My hands will I lift up unto Thy commandments which I have loved.

Open Thou mine eyes that I may see, incline my heart that I may desire,
order my steps that I may follow,
the way of Thy commandments.
O Lord God, be Thou to me a God,
and beside Thee none else,
none else, naught else with Thee.

Vouchsafe to me, to worship Thee and serve Thee

1. in truth of spirit,
2. in reverence of body,
3. in blessing of lips
4. in private and in public ;
5. to pay honour to them that have the rule over me,
by obedience and submission ;
to shew affection to my own,
by carefulness and providence ;
6. to overcome evil with good ;
7. to possess my vessel in sanctification and honour ;
8. to have my converse without covetousness, content with what I have ;
9. to speak the truth in love ;
10. to be desirous not to lust,
not to lust passionately,
not to go after lusts.

(THE HEDGE OF THE LAW, i. e. PRECAUTIONS.)

1. To bruise the serpent's head. Gen. iii. 15.
2. To remember my latter end. Deut. xxvii. 29.
3. To cut off opportunities. 2 Cor. xi. 12.
4. To be sober. 1 Pet. v. 8.
5. Not to sit idle. Matt. xx. 6.

6. To shun the wicked. Ps. xxvi. 5.
7. To cleave to the good. Rom. xii. 9.
8. To make a covenant with the eyes. Job xxxi. 1.
9. To bring my body into subjection. 1 Cor. ix. 27.
10. To give myself unto prayer. 1 Cor. vii. 5.
11. To betake myself to penitence. 2 Pet. iii. 9.

Hedge up my way with thorns, that I find not the path for following vanity.

Hold Thou me in with bit and bridle, lest I fall from Thee.

O Lord compel me to come in to Thee.

I believe, O Lord,
in Thee, Father, Word, Spirit, One God ; that by Thy fatherly love and power all things were created ;— that by Thy goodness and love to man all things have been begun anew
in Thy Word,—
Who for us men and for our salvation, was made flesh,
was conceived and born,

suffered and was crucified,
died and was buried,
descended and rose again,
ascended and sat down,
will return and will repay ;— that by the shining-forth and working
of Thy Holy Spirit,
hath been called out of the whole world
a peculiar people into a polity, in belief of the truth and sanctity of living :— that in it we are partakers of the communion of saints and forgiveness of sins in this world,—
that in it we are waiting for resurrection of the flesh and life everlasting
in the world to come.—
This most holy faith
which was once delivered to the saints
I believe, O Lord ;
help Thou mine unbelief, and vouchsafe to me
to love the Father for His fatherly love, to reverence the Almighty for His power, as a faithful Creator, to commit my soul to Him in well doing ;

vouchsafe to me to partake

from Jesus of salvation,

from Christ of anointing,

from the Only-begotten of adoption ;

to worship the Lord

for His conception in faith,

for His birth in humility,

for His sufferings in patience and hatred of sin ;

for His cross to crucify beginnings,

for His death to mortify the flesh,

for His burial to bury evil thoughts in good works,

for His descent to meditate upon hell,

for His resurrection upon newness of life,

for His ascension, to mind things above, for His sitting on high, to mind the good things on

His right,

for His return, to fear His second appearance,

for judgment, to judge myself ere I be judged.

From the Spirit

vouchsafe me the breath of salutary grace.

In the Holy Catholic Church

to have my own calling, and holiness, and portion,

and a fellowship
of her sacred rites, and prayers, fastings and groans,
vigils, tears, and sufferings,
for assurance of remission of sins,
for hope of resurrection and translation to eternal life.

(4.) INTERCESSION.

O Hope of all the ends of the earth,
and of them that remain in the broad sea ;
O Thou on whom our fathers hoped,
and Thou didst deliver them ;
on whom they waited,
and were not confounded ;
O my Hope from my youth,
from my mother's breasts ;
on whom I have been cast from the womb, be Thou my hope
now and evermore,
and my portion in the land of the living ;
In Thy nature,
in Thy names, in Thy types,
in word and in deed,

My Hope,
let me not be disappointed of my hope.
O the Hope of all the ends of the earth, remember Thy whole creation for good, visit the world in Thy compassion ;
O guardian of men,
O loving Lord,
remember all our race.
Thou who hast shut up all in unbelief,
on all have pity, O Lord.
O Thou who didst die and rise again,
to be Lord both of the dead and living, live we or die we,
Thou art our Lord ;
Lord, have pity on living and dead.
O Helper of the helpless, seasonable aid in affliction, remember all who are in necessity, and need Thy succor.
O God of grace and truth,
establish all who stand in truth and grace, restore all who are sick with heresies and sins.
O wholesome defence of Thine anointed, remember Thy congregation which Thou hast purchased and redeemed of old.

O grant to all believers
one heart and one soul.

Thou that walkest amid the golden candlesticks, remove not our candlestick out of its place.

Amend what are wanting,
establish what remain,
which Thou art ready to cast away,
which are ready to die.

O Lord of the harvest
send forth laborers, made sufficient by Thee, into Thy harvest.

O portion of those who wait in Thy temple, grant to our Clergy,
rightly to divide the word of truth,
rightly to walk in it ;
grant to thy Christian people to obey and submit to them.

O King of nations, unto the ends of the earth ;

strengthen all the states of the inhabited world, as being Thy ordinance,
though a creation of man.

Scatter the nations that delight in war,
make wars to cease in all the earth.

O Expectation of the isles and their hope,

Lord, save this island,
and all the country in which we sojourn,
from all affliction, peril, and need.

Lord of lords, Ruler of rulers, remember all rulers
to whom Thou hast given rule in the earth, and O remember specially
our divinely-guarded king,

and work with him more and more,
and prosper his way in all things.

Speak good things unto his heart,
for Thy Church, and all Thy people
grant to him profound and perpetual peace, that in his tranquillity

we may lead a quiet and peaceable life
in all godliness and honesty.

O Thou by whom are ordained the powers that be,
grant to those who are chief in court, to be chief in virtue and Thy fear ;
grant to the Parliament Thy holy wisdom ;
to our great men, to do nothing against but for the truth ;

to the courts of law, Thy judgments, to judge in all things concerning all without preference, without partiality.

O God of armies,
give a prosperous course and strength to all the Christian army, against the enemies of our most holy faith.

Grant to our population to be subject unto the higher powers, not only for wrath, but also for conscience-sake.

Grant to farmers and graziers good seasons ;
to the fleet and fishers fair weather ;
to tradesmen, not to overreach one another ;
to mechanics, to pursue their business lawfully,
down to the meanest workman,
down to the poor.

O God, not of us only but of our seed,
bless our children among us,
to advance in wisdom as in stature,
and in favor with Thee and with men.

Thou who wouldest have us provide for our own,
and hatest the unnatural,
remember, Lord, my relations according to the flesh ;
grant me to speak peace concerning them,
and to seek their good.

Thou who willest us to make return to our benefactors,
remember, Lord, for good,
all from whom I have received good ;
keep them alive that they may be blessed upon earth, and deliver them not into the will of their enemies.

Thou who hast noted
the man who neglects his own, as worse than an infidel, remember in Thy good pleasure
all those in my household.

Peace be to my house,
the Son of peace upon all in it.

Thou who wouldest that our righteousness exceed the righteousness of sinners, grant me, Lord, to love those who love me,
my own friend, and my father's friend,
and my friend's children,
never to forsake.

Thou who wouldest that we overcome evil with good,
and pray for those who persecute us,
have pity on mine enemies, Lord, as on myself ; -

and lead them together with me to Thy heavenly kingdom.

Thou who grantest the prayers of Thy servants
one for another,

remember, Lord, for good,
and pity all those who remember me in their prayers, or whom I have promised to remember in mine.

Thou who acceptest diligence in every good work, remember, Lord, as if they prayed to Thee,

those who for any good reason give not time to prayer.

Arise, and have mercy

on those who are in the last necessity, for it is time that Thou hast mercy upon them,
yea the time is come.

Have mercy on them, O Lord,
as on me also, when in extremities.

Remember, Lord,
infants, children, the grown, the young,
the middle aged, the old,
hungry, thirsty, naked, sick, prisoners, foreigners, friendless, unburied,
all in extreme age and weakness,
possessed with devils, and tempted to suicide, troubled by unclean spirits, the hopeless, the sick in soul or body, the weak-hearted, all in prison and chains, all under sentence of death ;

orphans, widows, foreigners, travellers, voyagers, women with child, women who give suck,
all in bitter servitude, or mines, or galleys, or in loneliness.

Thou, Lord, shalt save both man and beast, how excellent is Thy mercy, O God !

And the children of men shall put their trust under the shadow of Thy wings.

The Lord bless us, and keep us, and shew the light of His countenance upon us,
And be merciful unto us,

The Lord lift up His countenance upon us,
And give us peace !

I commend to Thee, O Lord,
my soul, and my body,
my mind, and my thoughts,
my prayers, and my vows,
my senses, and my limbs,
my words, and my works^a,
my life, and my death ;
my brothers, and my sisters,

^a Page 172, edit. 1675.

and their children ;
my friends, my benefactors, my well wishers,
those who have a claim on me ;
my kindred, and my neighbors,
my country, and all Christendom.

I commend to Thee, Lord,
my impulses, and my startings,
my intentions, and my attempts,
my going out, and my coming in,
my sitting down, and my rising up.

(5.) PRAISE.

Up with our hearts ;
we lift them to the Lord.
O how very meet, and right, and fitting, and due,
in all, and for all,
at all times, places, manners,
in every season, every spot, everywhere, always, altogether,
to remember Thee, to worship Thee,
to confess to Thee, to praise Thee, to bless Thee, to hymn Thee,
To give thanks to Thee, Maker, nourisher, guardian, governor, preserver, worker, perfecter of all,

Lord and Father,
King and God,
fountain of life and immortality, treasure of everlasting goods.
Whom the heavens hymn,
and the heaven of heavens,
the Angels and all the heavenly powers, one to other crying continually,— and we the while, weak and unworthy, under their feet,—
Holy, Holy, Holy,
Lord the God of Hosts;
full is the whole heaven,
and the whole earth,
of the majesty of Thy glory.
Blessed be the glory of the Lord
out of His place,
for His Godhead, His mysteriousness,
His height, His sovereignty, His almightiness,
His eternity, His providence.
The Lord is my strength, my stony rock, and my defence,
my deliverer, my succour, my buckler,
the horn also of my salvation and my refuge.

The Second Day.

INTRODUCTION.

My voice shalt Thou hear betimes, O Lord, early in the morning
will I direct my prayer unto Thee, and will look up.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord,
who didst create the firmament of heaven,
the heavens and the heaven of heavens,
the heavenly powers,
Angels, Archangels, Cherubim, Seraphim,
waters above the heavens,
mists and exhalations,
for showers, dew, hail, snow as wool,
hoar frost as ashes, ice as morsels, clouds from the ends of the earth, lightnings, thunders, winds out of Thy treasures storms;
waters beneath the heavens,
for drinking and for bathing.

CONFESSION.

I will confess my sins,
and the sins of my fathers,
for I have transgressed and neglected Thee, O Lord and walked perversely before Thee.
Set not, O Lord, set not my misdeeds before Thee, nor my life in the light of Thy countenance,
But pardon the iniquity of Thy servant,
according to Thy great mercy ;
as Thou hast been merciful to him from a child, even so now.

I have sinned, what shall I do unto Thee,
O Thou preserver of men ?
Why hast Thou set me as a mark against Thee,
so that I am a burden to myself ?
O pardon my transgression,
and take away mine iniquity.
Deliver me from going down to the pit,
for Thou hast found a ransom.
Have mercy on me, Son of David,
Lord, help me.
Yea, Lord, even the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their master's table.
Have patience with me, Lord,

yet I have not wherewith to pay,
I confess to Thee ;
forgive me the whole debt, I beseech Thee.
How long wilt Thou forget me, O Lord ? for ever ?
How long wilt Thou hide Thy face from me ?
How long shall I seek counsel in my soul,
and be vexed in my heart day and night ?
How long shall mine enemies triumph over me ?
Consider and hear me, O Lord my God,
lighten mine eyes that I sleep not in death,
lest mine enemy say I have prevailed against him, for if I be cast down, they that trouble me will rejoice at it ;
but my trust is in Thy mercy.

(2.) PRAYER FOR GRACE

Remove from me

Commandments.)*

1. all iniquity and profaneness, superstition, and hypocrisy.
2. worship of idols, of persons.
3. rash oath, and curse.
4. neglect or indecency of worship.
5. haughtiness and recklessness.
6. strife and wrath.
7. passion and corruption.

8. indolence and fraud.
9. lying and injuriousness.
10. every evil notion, every impure thought, every base desire, every unseemly thought.

Grant to me,

1. to be religious and pious.
2. to worship and serve.
3. to bless and swear truly.
4. to confess meetly in the congregation.
5. affection and obedience.
6. patience and good temper.
7. purity and soberness.
8. contentedness and goodness.
9. truth and incorruptness.
10. good thoughts, perseverance to the end.

(3.) PROFESSION.

I believe in God,

1. the Father, Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.
2. And in Jesus Christ, His Only-begotten Son, our Lord.

(1.) conceived of the Holy Ghost,

- (2.) born of Mary, ever-virgin,
- (3.) suffered under Pontius Pilate,
- (4.) crucified,
- (5.) dead,
- (6.) buried.—
- (1.) descended into hell,
- (2.) risen from the dead,
- (3.) ascended into heaven,
- (4.) set down on the right hand.
- (5.) to return thence,
- (6.) to judge both quick and dead.

3. And in the Holy Ghost,

- (1.) The Holy Church,
- (2.) Catholic,
- (3.) communion of saints,
- (4.) remission of sins,
- (5.) resurrection of flesh,
- (6.) life everlasting.

And now, Lord, what is my hope ?

Truly my hope is even in Thee ;
in Thee, O Lord, have I trusted, let me never be confounded.

(4.) INTERCESSION.

Let us pray God,
for the whole creation ;
for the supply of seasons, healthy, fruitful, peaceful ;
for the whole race of mankind ;
for those who are not Christians ;
for the conversion of Atheists, the ungodly ; Gentiles, Turks, and Jews ;
for all Christians ;
for restoration of all
who languish in errors and sins ;
for confirmation of all who have been granted truth and grace ;
for succour and comfort of all who are dispirited, infirm, distressed, unsettled,
men and women ;
for thankfulness and sobriety in all who are hearty, healthy, prosperous, quiet,
men and women ;
For the Catholic Church, its establishment and increase ;
for the Eastern,
its deliverance and union ;

for the Western,
 its adjustment and peace ;
for the British,
 the supply of what is wanting in it,
 the strengthening of what remains in it ;
for the episcopate, presbytery, Christian people ;
 for the states of the inhabited world ;
 for Christian states,
 far off, near at hand ;
 for our own ;
 for all in rule ;
 for our divinely-guarded king,
 the queen and the prince ;
for those who have place in the court ;
 for parliament and judicature,
 army and police,
 commons and their leaders,
 farmers, graziers, fishers, merchants,
 traders, and mechanics,
down to mean workmen, and the poor ;
 for the rising generation ;
for the good nurture of all the royal family,
 of the young ones of the nobility ,
 for all in universities, in inns of court,
 in schools in town or country,

in apprenticeships ;
for those who have a claim on me from relationship,
for brothers and sisters,
that God's blessing may be on them,
and on their children ;
or from benefits conferred,
that thy recompence may be on all who have benefited me,
who have ministered to me in carnal things ;
or from trust placed in me,
for all whom I have educated,
all whom I have ordained :
for my college, my parish, Southwell, St. Paul's, Westminster, Dioceses of Chichester, Ely, and my present, clergy, people, helps, governments,
the deanery in the chapel royal,
the almonry,
the colleges committed to me^a ;
or from natural kindness,
for all who love me,
though I know them not ;
or from Christian love ;
for those who hate me without cause,

^a As Visitor.

some too, even on account of truth and righteousness ;

or from neighborhood,

for all who dwell near me peaceably and harmlessly ;

or from promise,

for all whom I have promised to remember in my prayers ;

or from mutual offices,

for all who remember me in their prayers,

and ask of me the same ;

or from stress of engagements,

for all who on sufficient reasons fail to call upon Thee ;

for all who have no intercessor

in their own behalf ;

for all who at present are in agony of extreme necessity or deep affliction ;

for all who are attempting any good work which will bring glory to the Name of God or some great good to the Church ;

for all who act nobly either towards things sacred or towards the poor ;

for all who have ever been offended by me either in word or in deed.

God have mercy on me and bless me ;

God shew the light of His countenance upon me and pity me.

God bless me, even our God,
God bless me and receive my prayer ;
O direct my life towards Thy commandments, hallow my soul,
purify my body,
correct my thoughts,
cleanse my desires,
soul and body, mind and spirit,
heart and reins.
Renew me thoroughly, O God,
for, if Thou wilt, Thou canst.

The Lord, the Lord God, merciful and pitiful,
long-suffering and full of pity, and true,
keeping pity for thousands,
taking away iniquities and unrighteousnesses and sins ;
not clearing the guilty one,
bringing sins of fathers upon children.
I will bless the Lord at all times,
His praise shall ever be in my mouth.

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace,
goodwill towards men.

The Angels,	guardianship ;
Archangels,	glory ;
Powers,	marvels ;
Thrones,	judgment ;
Dominions,	beneficence ;
Principalities,	government ;
Authorities,	against devils ;
Cherubim,	knowledge ;
Seraphim,	love.

The Third Day.

INTRODUCTION.

O God, Thou art my God,
early will I seek Thee.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord,
who gatheredst the water into the sea,
and broughtest to sight the earth, and madest to sprout
herb and fruit tree.

There are the depths and the sea as on an heap,
lakes, rivers, springs ;
earth, continent, and isles ;
mountains, hills, and valleys ;
glebe, meadows, glades,
green pasture, corn, and hay ;
herbs and flowers
for food, enjoyment, medicine ;
fruit trees bearing
wine, oil and spices,

and trees for wood ;
and things beneath the earth,
stones, metals, minerals, coal,
blood and fire, and vapor of smoke.

(1.) CONFESSION.

Who can understand his errors ?
Cleanse Thou me from secret faults.
Keep back Thy servant also from presumptuous sins,
lest they have the dominion over me.

For Thy Name's sake,
be merciful unto my sin,
for it is great.

My iniquities have taken such hold upon me that I am not able to look up, yea, they are more in number than the hairs of my head,

and my heart hath failed me.
Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me,
Make haste, O Lord, to help me.

Magnify Thy mercies upon me,
O Thou who savest them that trust in Thee.

I said, Lord, have mercy upon me,
heal my soul, for I have sinned against Thee ;
I have sinned but I am confounded,

and I turn from my evil ways,
and I turn unto mine own heart,
and with my whole heart I turn unto Thee ;

and I seek Thy face,
and I beseech Thee, saying,
I have sinned, I have committed iniquity,
I have done unjustly.

I know, O Lord, the plague of my heart,
and lo, I turn to Thee with all my heart,
and with all my strength.

And Thou, O Lord, now from Thy dwelling-place,
and from the glorious throne of Thy kingdom
in heaven

O hear the prayer
and the supplication of Thy servant ;
and be propitious towards Thy servant,
and heal his soul.

O God, be merciful to me a sinner,
be merciful to me the chief of sinners.
Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before Thee,

and am no more worthy to be called Thy son,
make me one of Thy hired servants ;
Make me one, or even the last,
or the least among all.

What profit is there in my blood,
when I go down to the pit?
shall the dust give thanks unto Thee?
or shall it declare Thy truth?
Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon me;
Lord, be Thou my helper;
Turn my heaviness into joy,
my dreamings into earnestness,
my falls into clearings of myself,
my guilt, my offence into indignation,
my sin into fear,
my transgression into vehement desire,
my unrighteousness into strictness,
my pollution into revenge.

(2.) PRAYER FOR GRACE.

Hosanna in the highest.^a Remember me, O Lord,
with the favor that Thou bearest unto Thy people, O visit me with Thy salvation;
that I may see the felicity of Thy chosen,
and rejoice in the gladness of Thy people,
and give thanks with Thine inheritance.
There is glory which shall be revealed;

^a Vide p. 136, edit. 1675.

for when the Judge cometh some shall see Thy face cheerful, and shall be placed on the right,
and shall hear those most welcome words,

“Come, ye blessed.”

They shall be caught up in clouds to meet the Lord ;
they shall enter into gladness,
- they shall enjoy the sight of Him,
they shall be ever with him.

These alone, only these are blessed among the sons of men.

O to me the meanest grant the meanest place
there under their feet ;
under the feet of Thine elect,
the meanest among them.

And that this may be,
let me find grace in Thy sight to have grace, (Heb. xii. 28.) so as to serve Thee acceptably with reverence and godly fear.
Let me find that second grace, not to receive in vain (2 Cor. vi. 1.)
the first grace,
not to come short of it ; (Heb. xii. 15.)

yea, not to neglect it, (1 Tim. iv. 14.)

so as to fall from it, (Gal. v. 4.)

but to stir it up, (2 Tim. i. 6.)

so as to increase in it, (2 Pet. iii. 18.)

yea, to abide in it

till the end of my life.

And O, perfect for me what is lacking of Thy gifts,

of faith, help Thou mine unbelief,

of hope, establish my trembling hope,

of love, kindle its smoking flax.

Shed abroad Thy love in my heart,

so that I may love Thee,

my friend in Thee, my enemy for Thee.

O Thou who givest grace to the humble-minded,

also give me grace to be humble-minded.

O Thou who never failest those who fear Thee,

my Fear and my Hope,

let me fear one thing only,

the fearing ought more than Thee.

As I would that men should do to me

so may I do to them;

not to have thoughts beyond what I should think,

but to have thoughts unto sobriety.

Shine on those who sit in darkness,

and the shadow of death;
guide our feet into the way of peace.
that we may have the same thoughts
one with another,
rightly to divide, rightly to walk,
to edify,
with one accord, with one mouth,
to glorify God;
and if ought otherwise,
to walk in the same rule
as far as we have attained;
to maintain order,
decency and steadfastness.

(3.) PROFESSION.

Godhead, paternal love, power, providence;
salvation, anointing, adoption,
lordship;
conception, birth, passion,
cross, death, burial,
descent, resurrection, ascent,
sitting, return, judgment; Breath and Holiness, calling from the Universal,

hallowing in the Universal,
communion of saints, and of saintly things, resurrection,
life eternal.

(4.) INTERCESSION.

Hosanna on the earth^b.
Remember, O Lord,
to crown the year with Thy goodness ;
for the eyes of all look towards Thee,
and Thou givest their food in due season.
Thou openest Thine hand,
and fillest all things living with plenteousness.
And on us, O Lord, vouchsafe
the blessings of heaven and the dew above, blessings of fountains and the deep beneath, courses of sun, conjunctions of moons, summits of eastern mountains, of the everlasting hills, fulness of the earth and of produce thereof,
good seasons, wholesome weather,
full crops, plenteous fruits,
health of body, peaceful times,

^b Continuation of the supplication broken by "Profession." Vide
p. 192, edit. 1675.

mild government, kind laws,
wise councils, equal judgments,
loyal obedience, vigorous justice, fertility in resources, fruitfulness in begetting, ease in bearing, happiness in offspring, careful nurture, sound training,
That our sons may grow up as the young plants,
our daughters as the polished corners of the temple, that our garners may be full and plenteous
with all manner of store, that our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets :
that there be no decay,
no leading into captivity and no complaining in our streets.

(5.) PRAISE.

°Thou, O Lord, art praised in Sion, and unto Thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem.

Thou art worthy, O Lord our God,
the Holy One,
to receive glory, and honor, and power.

° Vide p. 172, edit. 1675.

Thou that hearest the prayer,
unto Thee shall all flesh come,
my flesh shall come.

My misdeeds prevail against me,
O be Thou merciful unto our sins ;
that I may come and give thanks
with all Thy works,
and bless Thee with Thy holy ones.

O Lord, open Thou my lips,
and my mouth shall shew forth Thy praise.

My soul doth praise the Lord,
for the goodness He hath done to the whole creation,
and to the whole race of man ;
for Thy mercies towards myself,
soul, body, and estate,
gifts of grace, nature, and fortune ;
for all benefits received,
for all successes, now or heretofore,
for any good thing done ;
for health, credit, competency,
safety, gentle estate, quiet.

Thou hast not cut off as a weaver my life,
nor from day even to night made an end of me.

He hath vouchsafed me life and breath until this hour,

from childhood, youth, and hitherto even unto age.

He holdeth our soul in life and suffereth not our feet to slip ; rescuing me from perils, sicknesses,
poverty, bondage,
public shame, evil chances ;
keeping me from perishing in my sins,
fully waiting my conversion,
leaving in me return into my heart, remembrance of my latter end,
shame, horror, grief,
for my past sins ;
fuller and larger, larger and fuller,
more and still more, O my Lord, storing me with good hope
of their remission,
through repentance and its works,
in the power of the thrice-holy Keys,
and the mysteries in Thy Church.

Wherefore day by day
for these Thy benefits towards me, which I remember,—
wherefore also for others very many which I have let slip from their number, from my forgetfulness,— for those which I wished, knew and asked, and those I asked not, knew not, wished not,—

I confess and give thanks to Thee,
I bless and praise Thee, as is fit, and every day.

And I pray with my whole soul,
and with my whole mind I pray.
Glory be to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee ;
glory to Thee, and glory to Thine All-holy Name, for all Thy Divine perfections in them ;
for Thine incomprehensible and unimaginable goodness, and Thy pity towards sinners
and unworthy men,
and towards me of all sinners far the most unworthy.

Yea, O Lord,
for this, and for the rest,
glory to Thee,
and praise, and blessing, and thanksgiving,
with the voices and concert of voices of Angels and of men,
of all Thy saints in heaven,
and all Thy creatures in heaven or earth,

and of me, beneath their feet, unworthy and wretched sinner Thy abject creature,
now, in this day and hour,
and every day till my last breath,
and till the end of the world,
and for ages upon ages.

The Fourth Day.

INTRODUCTION.

I have thought upon Thee, O Lord, when I was waking,
for Thou hast been my helper.
Blessed art Thou, O Lord,
who madest the two Lights, Sun and Moon, greater and lesser,
and the stars
for light, for signs, for seasons, spring, summer, autumn, winter,
days, weeks, months, years,
to rule over day and night.

(1.) CONFESSION.

Behold, Thou art angry, for we have sinned.
We are all as an unclean thing,
and all our righteousnesses as filthy rags.

We all do fade as a leaf,
and our iniquities, like the wind,
have taken us away.

But now, O Lord, Thou art our Father, we are clay, all Thy handiwork.

Be not wroth very sore,
nor remember iniquity for ever ;
behold, see, we beseech Thee,
we are all Thy people.

O Lord, though our iniquities testify against us, do Thou it for Thy Name's sake ;
for our backslidings are many,
we have sinned against Thee.

Yet Thou, O Lord, art in the midst of us, and we are called by Thy Name, leave us not.

O Hope of Israel,
the Saviour thereof in time of trouble,
why shouldest Thou be as a stranger in the land,
and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night ?

why shouldest Thou be as a man astonished,
as a mighty man that cannot save ?

Be merciful to our unrighteousnesses,
and our iniquities remember no more.

Lord, I am carnal,
sold under sin ;
there dwelleth in me, that is, in my flesh,
no good thing ;

for the good that I would, I do not,
but the evil which I would not, that I do.

I consent unto the law that it is good,

I delight in it after the inner man ;

But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind,
and enslaving me to the law of sin.

Wretched man that I am,
who shall deliver me from the body of this death ?

I thank God through Jesus Christ, that where sin abounded,
grace hath much more abounded.

O Lord, Thy goodness leadeth me to repentance :

O give me sometime repentance to recover me from the snare of the devil, who am taken captive by him at his will.

Sufficient for me the past time of my life
to have done the will of lusts, walking in lasciviousness, revelling, drunkenness,
and in other excess of profligacy.

O Lamb without blemish and without spot, who hast redeemed me with Thy precious Blood,
in that very Blood pity me and save me ;
in that Blood,
and in that very Name,
besides which is none other under heaven
given among men,
by which we must be saved.

O God, Thou knowest my foolishness, and my sins are not hid from Thee.
Lord, Thou knowest all my desire,
and my groaning is not hid from Thee.

Let not them that Trust in Thee, O Lord God of hosts,
be ashamed for my cause ;
let not those that seek Thee be confounded through me,
O Lord God of Israel.

Take me out of the mire that I sink not ;
let me be delivered from them that hate me,
and out of the deep waters ;
Let not the water-flood drown me, neither let the deep swallow me up,
and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

[Defend me from]

Pride Amorite.

(against seven envy Hittite.deadly wrath Perizzite.sins.) gluttony Girkashite.

lechery Hivite.

[Give me]

Humility, pitifulness, patience, sobriety. purity, contentment, ready zeal.

One thing have I desired of the Lord which I will require,^a that I may dwell in the house of the Lord

all the days of my life,

to behold the fair beauty of the Lord,

and to visit His temple.

Two things have I required of Thee, O Lord, deny Thou me not before I die ;

remove far from me vanity and lies ;

give me neither poverty nor riches, feed me with food convenient for me ;

lest I be full and deny Thee

and say, who is the Lord ?
or lest I be poor and steal,
and take the Name of my God in vain.

Let me learn to abound,
let me learn to suffer need,
in whatsoever state I am,
therewith to be content.

For nothing earthly, temporal, mortal, to long nor to wait.

Grant me a happy life
in piety, gravity, purity,
in all things good and fair,
in cheerfulness, in health, in credit,
in competency, in safety, in gentle estate, in quiet ;
a happy death,
a deathless happiness.

(3.) PROFESSION.

I believe
in the Father, benevolent affection ;
in the Almighty, saving power ;
in the Creator, providence for guarding, ruling, perfecting the universe.
In Jesus, salvation,
in Christ, anointing ;

in the Only-begotten Son, sonship,
in the Lord, a master's treatment, in His conception and birth the cleansing of our unclean conception and birth ;
in His sufferings, which we owed,
that we might not pay ;
in His cross the curse of the law removed ;
in His death the sting of death ;
in His burial eternal destruction in the tomb ;
in His descent, whither we ought,
that we might not go ;
in His resurrection,
as the first fruits of them that sleep ;
in His ascent, to prepare a place for us ;
in His sitting, to appear and intercede ;
in His return, to take unto Him His own ;
in His judgment, to render to each according to his works.

In the Holy Ghost, power from on high, transforming unto sanctity from without and invisibly, yet inwardly and evidently.

In the Church, a body mystical of the called out of the whole world, unto intercourse in faith and holiness.

In the communion of Saints, members of this body,
a mutual participation in holy things,
for confidence of remission of sins,
for hope of resurrection, of translation,
to life everlasting.

(4.) INTERCESSION.

And I have hoped in Thy mercy
from everlasting to everlasting.
How excellent is Thy mercy, O Lord ;
If I have hope, it is in Thy mercy,
O let me not be disappointed of my hope.
Moreover we beseech Thee, remember all, Lord, for good ;
have pity upon all, O Sovereign Lord,
be reconciled with us all.
Give peace to the multitudes of Thy people ;
scatter offences ;
abolish wars ;
stop the uprisings of heresies.
Thy peace and love
vouchsafe to us, O God our Saviour, the Hope of all the ends of the earth.

Remember to crown the year with Thy goodness ;
for the eyes of all wait upon Thee,
and Thou givest them their meat in due season.

Thou openest Thy hand,
and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

Remember Thy Holy Church,
from one end of the earth to the other ;
and give her peace,
whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood ;
and establish her
unto the end of the world.

Remember those who bear fruit, and act nobly,
in Thy holy Churches,
and who remember the poor and needy ;
recompense to them
Thy rich and heavenly gifts ;
vouchsafe to them,
for things earthly, heavenly,
for corruptible, incorruptible,
for temporal, eternal.

Remember those who are in virginity,
and purity and ascetic life ;
also those who live in honorable marriage,
in Thy reverence and fear.

Remember every Christian soul
in affliction, distress, and trial, and in need of Thy pity and succor ;
also our brethren in captivity, prison, chains,
and bitter bondage ;
supplying return to the wandering,
health to the sick,
deliverance to the captives.
Remember religious and faithful kings, whom Thou hast given to rule upon the earth ;
and especially remember, Lord,
our divinely-guarded king ;
strengthen his kingdom,
subdue to him all adversaries,
speak good things to his heart,
for Thy Church, and all Thy people.
Vouchsafe to him deep and undisturbed peace, that in his serenity
we may lead a quiet and peaceable life
with all godliness and honesty.
Remember, Lord, all power and authority,
our brethren in the court,
those who are chief in council and judgment,

and all by land and sea waging Thy wars for us.

Moreover, Lord, remember graciously our holy Fathers,
the honorable Presbytery, and all the Clergy, rightly dividing the Word of Truth,
and rightly walking in it.

Remember, Lord, our brethren around us,
and praying with us in this holy hour,
for their zeal and earnestness-sake.

Remember also those who on fair reasons are away,
and pity them and us
in the multitude of Thy pity.

Fill our garners with all manner of store, preserve our marriages in peace and concord, nourish our infants,
lead forward our youth,
sustain our aged,
comfort the weak-hearted,
gather together the scattered,
restore the wanderers,
and knit them to Thy Holy Catholic Apostolic Church.

Set free the troubled
with unclean spirits,

voyage with the voyagers,
travel with the travellers,
stand forth for the widow,
shield the orphan,
rescue the captive,
heal the sick.

Those who are on trial, in mines, in exile, in galleys, in whatever affliction, necessity, and emergence,
remember, O God ;

and all who need Thy great mercy ;

and those who love us,

and those who hate ;

and those who have desired us unworthy to make mention of them in our prayers ;

and all Thy people remember, O Lord, our God,

and upon all pour out Thy rich pity,

to all performing their requests for salvation ;

and those of whom we have not made mention,

through ignorance, forgetfulness, or number of names,

do Thou Thyself remember. O God, who knowest the stature and appellation of each,

who knowest every one from his mother's womb.

For Thou art, O Lord, the Succor of the succorless, the Hope of the hopeless,

The Saviour of the tempest-tost,
the Harbor of the voyager,
the Physician of the sick,
do Thou Thyself become all things to all men.
O Thou who knowest each man and his petition,
each house, and its need,
deliver, O Lord, this city,
and all the country in which we sojourn,
from plague, famine, earthquake, flood,
fire, sword, hostile invasion, and civil war.

End the schisms of the Churches, quench the haughty cries of the nations,
and receive us all into Thy kingdom, acknowledging us as sons of light ;
and Thy peace and love vouchsafe to us, O Lord, our God.
Remember, O Lord, our God,
all spirits and all flesh which we have remembered, and which we have not.
And the close of our life,
Lord, Lord, direct in peace, Christianly, acceptably, and, should it please Thee, painlessly,
gathering us together under the feet of Thine elect,

when Thou wilt and how Thou wilt,
only without shame and sins.
The brightness of the Lord our God be upon us, prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper Thou our handy-work.

Be, Lord,
within me to strengthen me,
without me to guard me,
over me to shelter me,
beneath me to stablish me,
before me to guide me,
after me to forward me,
round about me to secure me.

Blessed art Thou, Lord, God of Israel,
our Father,
from everlasting to everlasting.
Thine, O Lord,
is the greatness and the power,
the triumph and the victory,
the praise and the strength,
for Thou rulest over all in heaven and on earth.

At Thy face every king is troubled, and every nation.

Thine, O Lord, is the kingdom and the supremacy over all,
and over all rule.

With Thee is wealth, and glory is from Thy countenance ;

Thou rulest over all, O Lord,
the Ruler of all rule ;

and in Thine hand is strength and power,
and in Thine hand to give to all things greatness and strength.

And now, Lord, we confess to Thee, and we praise Thy glorious Name.

The Fifth Day.

INTRODUCTION.

We are satisfied with Thy mercy, O Lord,
in the morning.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord,
who broughtest forth from the water creeping things of life, and whales,
and winged fowl.

Be Thou exalted, O God, above the heavens, and Thy glory above all the earth.

By Thy Ascension, O Lord,
draw us too after Thee,
that we savor of what is above,
not of things on the earth.

By the marvellous mystery of the Holy Body and precious Blood, on the evening of this day,
Lord, have mercy.

(1.) CONFESSION.

Thou who hast said,
"As I live, saith the Lord,
I will not the death of a sinner, but that the ungodly return from his way
and live ;

turn ye, turn ye from your wicked way,
for why will ye die, O house of Israel ?"

turn us, O Lord, to Thee, and so shall we be turned.

Turn us from all our ungodlinesses, and let them not be to us for punishments.

I have sinned, I have committed iniquity,

I have done wickedly,
from Thy precepts, and Thy judgments.

To Thee, O Lord, righteousness, and to me confusion of face,
as at this day,

in our despicableness,
wherewith Thou hast despised us.

Lord, to us confusion of face, and to our rulers

who have sinned against Thee.

Lord, in all things is Thy righteousness, unto all Thy righteousness ;

let then Thine anger and Thy fury be turned away, and cause Thy face to shine upon Thy servant.

O my God, incline Thine ear and hear,
open Thine eyes and see my desolation.

O Lord, hear, O Lord forgive,

O Lord hearken and do ;

defer not for Thine own sake, O my God,
for Thy servant is called by Thy Name.

In many things we offend all ;

Lord, let Thy mercy rejoice against Thy judgment in my sins.

If I say I have no sin, I deceive myself, and the truth is not in me ;

but I confess my sins many and grievous, and Thou, O Lord, art faithful and just,
to forgive me my sins when I confess them.

Yea, for this too

I have an Advocate with Thee to Thee,
Thy only-begotten Son, the Righteous.
May He be the propitiation for my sins,
who is also for the whole world.

Will the Lord cast off for ever ?
and will He be no more intreated ?

Is His merey clean gone for ever ?
and is His promise come utterly to an end for evermore ?

Hath God forgotten to be gracious ?
and will He shut up his loving kindness in displeasure ?

And I said, It is mine own infirmity ;
but I will remember the years of the right hand of the most Highest.

[Give me grace]
to put aside every weight and the sin that doth so easily beset us ;
all filthiness
and superfluity of naughtiness, lust of the flesh, of the eyes,
pride of life,
every motion of flesh and spirit alienated from the will of Thy sanctity :
to be poor in spirit,
that I have a portion in the kingdom of heaven ;
to mourn, that I be comforted ;
to be meek, that I inherit the earth ;

to hunger and thirst for righteousness,
that I be filled ;
to be pitiful, that I be pitied ;
to be pure in heart, that I see God ;
to be a peace-maker, that I be called the son of God :
to be prepared for persecutions and revilings
for righteousness' sake, that my reward be in heaven,— all this, grant to me, O Lord.

(3.) PROFESSION.

I, coming to God,
believe that He is,
and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him.

I know that my Redeemer liveth, that He is Christ, the Son of the Living God,
that He is truly the Saviour of the world,
that He came into the world to save sinners,
of whom I am chief.

Through the grace of Jesus Christ
we believe that we shall be saved like as our fathers.

I know that my skin shall rise up upon the earth, which undergoeth these things.

I believe to see the goodness of the Lord
in the land of the living.

Our heart shall rejoice in Him, because we have hoped in His holy Name,
in the Name of the Father, of the Saviour, Mediator, Intercessor, Redeemer, of the two-fold Comforter,
under the figures of the Lamb and the Dove.
Let Thy merciful kindness, O Lord, be upon us, like as we do put our trust in Thee.

(4.) INTERCESSION.

Let us beseech the Lord in peace,
for the heavenly peace,
and the salvation of our souls ;—
for the peace of the whole world ;
for the stability of God's holy Churches, and the union of them all ;—
for this holy house,
and those who enter it with faith and reverence ;
for our Holy Fathers,
the Honorable Presbytery, the Diaconate in Christ, and all, both Clergy and people ;—
for this holy retreat, and all the city and country, and all the faithful who dwell therein ;—

for salubrious weather, fruitfulness of earth, — and peaceful times ;—
for voyagers, travellers, those who are in sickness, toil, and captivity,
and for their salvation.

Aid, save, pity, and preserve them,
O God, in Thy grace.

Making mention
of the all-holy, undefiled, and more than blessed Mary, Mother of God and Ever-Virgin, with all saints,
let us commend ourselves, and each other,
and all our life,
to Christ our God.

To Thee, O Lord, for it is fitting,
be glory, honor, and worship.

The grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ,
and the love of God,

and the communion of the Holy Ghost,
be with me, and with all of us. Amen.

I commend me and mine, and all that belongs to me,
to Him who is able to keep me without falling,
and to place me immaculate before the presence of His glory, to the only wise God and our Saviour ;

to whom be glory and greatness,
strength and authority,
both now and for all ages. Amen.

O Lord, my Lord,
for my being, life, reason,
for nurture, protection, guidance,
for education, civil rights, religion,
for Thy gifts of grace, nature, fortune,
for redemption, regeneration, catechising,
for my call, recall, yea, many calls besides ;
for Thy forbearance, long-suffering, long long-suffering
to me-ward,
many seasons, many years, up to this time ;
for all good things received, successes granted me,
good things done ;
for the use of things present,
for Thy promise, and my hope of the enjoyment of good things to come ;
for my parents honest and good,
teachers kind,
benefactors never to be forgotten,
religious intimates congenial,

hearers thoughtful,
friends sincere,
domestics faithful,
for all who have advantaged me
by writings, homilies, converse, prayers, patterns, rebukes, injuries ;
for all these, and all others which I know, which I know not,
open, hidden,
remembered, forgotten,
done when I wished, when I wished not,
I confess to Thee and will confess,
I bless Thee and will bless,
I give thanks to Thee and will give thanks,
all the days of my life.

Who am I, or what is my father's house,
that Thou shouldest look upon a dead dog, the like of me ?

what reward shall I give unto the Lord for all the benefits which He hath done unto me ?

What thanks can I recompense unto God, for all he hath spared and borne with me until now ?

Holy, Holy, Holy,
worthy art Thou,
O Lord and our God, the Holy One,

to receive the glory, and the honor, and the power,
for Thou hast made all things, and for Thy pleasure they are,
and were created.

The Sixth Day.

INTRODUCTION.

Early shall my prayer come before Thee.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord,
who broughtest forth of the earth, wild beasts, cattle,
and all the reptiles,
for food, clothing, help ;
and madest man after Thine image, to rule the earth,
and blessedst him.

The fore-counsel, fashioning hand, breath of life, image of God, appointment over the works,
charge to the Angels concerning him, paradise.—

Heart, reins, eyes, ears, tongue, hands, feet, life, sense, reason, spirit, free will,
memory, conscience,
the revelation of God, writing of the law, oracles of prophets, music of psalms, instruction of proverbs, experience of histories, worship of sacrifices.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord,
for Thy great and precious promise
on this day
concerning the Life-giving Seed, and for its fulfilment in fulness of the times
on this day.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord,
for the holy Passion
of this day.
O by Thy salutary sufferings
on this day,
save us, O Lord.

I have withstood Thee, Lord,
but I return to Thee ;
for I have fallen by mine iniquity.
But I take with me words,
and I return unto Thee and say,
take away all iniquity and receive us graciously,
so will we render the calves of our lips.

Spare us, Lord, spare,
and give not Thine heritage to reproach, to Thine enemies..

Lord, Lord, be propitious, cease, I beseech Thee,
by whom shall Jacob arise?
for he is small.

Repent, O Lord, for this,
and this shall not be.

While observing lying vanities
I forsook my own mercy, and am cast out of Thy sight.
When my soul fainted within me,
I remembered the Lord ;
yet will I look again toward Thy Holy Temple ;
Thou hast brought up my life from corruption.

Who is a God like unto Thee, that pardoneth iniquity to the remnant of His heritage ?
He retaineth not His anger for ever,
because He delighteth in mercy.
Turn again and have compassion upon us, O Lord, subdue our iniquities,

and cast all our sins into the depths of the sea,
according to Thy truth, and according to Thy mercy.

O Lord, I have heard Thy speech and was afraid,
in wrath remember mercy.

Behold me, Lord, clothed in filthy garments;
behold Satan standing at my right hand;
yet, O Lord, by the blood of Thy covenant, by the fountain opened for sin and for uncleanness,
take away my iniquity,
and cleanse me from my sin.

Save me as a brand
plucked out of the fire.
Father, forgive me, for I knew not, truly I knew not, what I did in sinning against Thee.

Lord, remember me
when Thou comest in Thy kingdom.
Lord, lay not mine enemies' sins to their charge,
Lord, lay not my own to mine.
By Thy sweat bloody and clotted,
Thy soul in agony,
Thy head crowned with thorns, bruised with staves,
Thine eyes swimming with tears,

Thine ears full of insults,
Thy mouth moistened with vinegar and gall,
Thy face dishonorably stained with spitting,
Thy neck weighed down with the burden of the cross, Thy back ploughed with the wheals and gashes
of the scourge,

Thy hands and feet stabbed through,
Thy strong cry, Eli, Eli, Thy heart pierced with the spear,
the water and blood thence flowing,
Thy body broken,
Thy blood poured out,

Lord, forgive the offence of Thy servant,
and cover all his sins.

Turn away all Thy displeasure, and turn Thyself from Thy wrathful indignation.

Turn me then, O God our Saviour, and let Thine anger cease from us.

Wilt Thou be displeased at us for ever,
and stretch out Thy wrath from one generation to another ?

Wilt Thou not turn again and quicken us, that Thy people may rejoice in Thee ?

Shew us Thy mercy, O Lord, and grant us Thy salvation.

(2.) PRAYER FOR GRACE.

the works of the flesh,
adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft,
enmities, strifes,
emulations, heats,
quarrels, parties,
heresies, envyings, murders,
drunkennesses, revellings, and such like.

the fruits of the Spirit,
love, joy, peace,
long-suffering, gentleness, goodness,
faith, meekness, temperance ;
the spirit of wisdom, of understanding,
of counsel, of might,
of knowledge, of godliness,
of fear of the Lord :—
and the gifts of the Spirit,
the word of wisdom, of knowledge,
faith, gifts of healing, working of miracles, prophecy, discerning of spirits,
kinds of tongues, interpretation of tongues.

May thy strong hand, O Lord,^a be ever my defence ; Thy mercy in Christ
my salvation ;
Thy all-veritable word,
my instructor ;
the grace of Thy life-bringing Spirit,
my consolation,
all along, and at last.
The Soul of Christ hallow me,
and the Body strengthen me,
and the Blood ransom me,
and the Water wash me,
and the Bruises heal me,
and the Sweat refresh me,
and the Wound hide me.
The peace of God
which passeth all understanding,
keep my heart and thoughts
in the knowledge and the love of God.

(3.) PROFESSION.

I believe
that Thou hast created me ;

^a Vide p. 146, edit. 1675.

despise not the work of Thine own hands ;—
 that Thou madest me after Thine image and likeness, suffer not Thy likeness to be blotted out ;— that Thou hast redeemed me in Thy blood, suffer not the cost of that redemption to perish ;
 that Thou hast called me Christian after Thy name, disdain not Thine own title ;
 that Thou hast hallowed me in regeneration, destroy not Thy holy work ;—
 that Thou hast grafted me into the good olive tree, the member of a mystical body ;
 the member of Thy mystical body cut not off.

O think upon Thy servant as concerning Thy word, wherein Thou hast caused me to put my trust.

My soul hath longed for Thy salvation,
 and I have good hope because of Thy word.

[I pray]

for the prosperous advance and good condition of all the Christian army,
 against the enemies of our most holy faith ;
 for our holy fathers,
 and all our brotherhood in Christ ;

for those who hate and those who love us,
for those who pity and those who minister to us ;
for those whom we have promised to remember in prayer ;
for the liberation of captives ;
for our fathers and brethren absent ;
for those who voyage by sea ;
for those who lie in sickness.

-Let us pray also for fruitfulness of the earth ;
and for every soul of orthodox Christians.

Let us bless pious kings, orthodox high-priests,
the founders of this holy retreat,
our parents,
and all our forefathers
and our brethren departed.

(5.) PRAISE.

Thou who, on man's transgressing Thy command,
and falling,
didst not pass him by, nor leave him, God of goodness ;
but didst visit in ways manifold,
as a tender Father,
supplying him with Thy great and precious promise,
concerning the Life-giving Seed,

opening to him the door of faith,
and of repentance unto life,
and in fulness of the times, sending Thy Christ Himself to take on Him the seed of Abraham ;
and, in the oblation of His life,
to fulfil the Law's obedience ;
and, in the sacrifice of His death,
to take off the Law's curse ;
and, in His death,*
to redeem the world ;
and, in His resurrection,
to quicken it :—

O Thou, who doest all things, whereby to bring again our race to Thee,
that it may be partaker of Thy divine nature and eternal glory ;
who hast borne witness to the truth of Thy gospel by many and various wonders, in the ever-memorable converse of Thy saints,
in their supernatural endurance of torments, in the overwhelming conversion of all lands
to the obedience of faith, without might, or persuasion, or compulsion :

Blessed be Thy Name,
and praised and celebrated,
and magnified, and high exalted,
and glorified, and hallowed ;
its record, and its memory,
and every memorial of it,
both now and for evermore.

Worthy art Thou to take the book,
and to open the seals thereof,
for Thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God
by Thy blood,
out of every kindred and tongue,
and people, and nation.

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive the power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing.

To Him that sitteth upon the Throne,
and to the Lamb,
be the blessing, and the honor, and the glory,
and the might,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Salvation to our God, which sitteth upon the throne,
and to the Lamb.

Amen : the blessing and the glory and the wisdom,
and the thanksgiving and the honor, and the power and the strength,

be unto our God,
for ever and ever,
Amen.

The Seventh Day.

INTRODUCTION.

O Lord, be gracious unto us,
we have waited for thee ;
be Thou our arm every morning,
our salvation also in the time of trouble.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord,
who restedst on the seventh day
from all Thy works,
and blessedst and sanctifiedst it : [concerning the Sabbath, concerning the Christian rest instead of it, concerning the burial of Christ,
and the resting from sin, concerning those who are already gone to rest.]

(1.) CONFESSION.

I am ashamed, and blush, O my God,
to lift up my face to Thee,

for mine iniquities are increased over mine head,
and my trespass is grown up unto the heavens ;
since the days of youth have I been in a great trespass unto this day ;

I cannot stand before thee because of this.
My sins are more in number than the sand of the sea,
my iniquities are multiplied, and I not worthy to look up and see the height of heaven, from the number of my unrighteousnesses ;
and I have no relief,
because I have provoked Thine anger,
and done evil in Thy sight ;
not doing Thy will,
not keeping Thy commandments.
And now my heart kneels to Thee, beseeching Thy goodness.
I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned, and I know mine iniquities ;
and I ask and beseech,
remit to me, O Lord, remit to me,
and destroy me not in mine iniquities ;
nor be Thou angry for ever,

nor reserve evil for me ;

nor condemn me

in the lowest parts of the earth.

Because Thou art God, the God of penitents, and Thou shalt shew in me all Thy loving kindness ;

for Thou shalt save me unworthy,

according to Thy much pity,

and I will praise Thee alway.

Lord, if Thou wilt, Thou canst cleanse me ;

Lord, only say the word, and I shall be healed.

Lord, save me ;

Carest Thou not that we perish ?

Say to me, Be of good cheer, thy sins are remitted to thee.

Jesu, Master, have mercy on me ;

Thou Son of David, Jesu, have mercy on me ;

Jesu, Son of David, Son of David.

Lord, say to me, Ephphatha.

Lord, I have no man^a ;

Lord, say to me, Be loosed from thine infirmity.

Say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

Say unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee.

Lord, how long wilt Thou be angry ?

shall Thy jealousy burn like fire for ever ?

^a John v. 7.

O, remember not our old sins ;
but have mercy on us and that soon,
for we are come to great misery ;
Help us, O God of our salvation ;
for the glory of Thy Name.
O deliver us and be merciful unto our sins,
for Thy Name's sake.

(2.) PRAYER FOR GRACE.

[O Lord, remit]
all my failings, shortcomings, falls, offences, trespasses, scandals,
transgressions, debts, sins,
faults, ignorances, iniquities, impieties, unrighteousnesses, pollutions.
The guilt of them,
be gracious unto, pardon ;
remit, forgive ;
be propitious unto, spare ;
impute not, charge not, remember not.
The stain,
pass by, pass over ;
disregard, overlook ;
hide, wash away ;
blot out, cleanse.

The hurt,

remit,	heal,	remedy ;
take off,	remove,	away with ;
abolish,	annul,	disperse, annihilate ;

that they be not found, that they exist not.

Supply

to faith,	virtue ;
to virtue,	knowledge ;
to knowledge,	continence ;
to continence,	patience ;
to patience,	godliness ;
to godliness,	brotherly love ;
to brotherly love,	charity.

That I forget not my cleansing from my former sins, but give diligence to make my calling and election sure through good works.

(3.) PROFESSION.

I believe in Thee the Father ;
 Behold then, if Thou a Father and we sons,
 as a father pitieth sons,
 be Thou of tender mercy towards us, O Lord.
 I believe in Thee, the Lord ;
 behold then, if Thou art Lord and we servants,

our eyes are upon Thee, our Lord, until Thou have mercy upon us.

I believe, that though we be neither sons nor servants,
 but dogs only,

yet we have leave to eat of the crumbs that fall from Thy table.

I believe that Christ is the Lamb of God ;
 O Lamb of God that takest away the sins of the world,

take Thou away mine.

I believe that Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners ;

Thou who camest to save sinners save Thou me, of sinners chief and greatest.

I believe that Christ came to save what was lost ;
 Thou who camest to save the lost, never suffer, O Lord, that to be lost which Thou hast saved.

I believe that the Spirit is the Lord and Giver of life ;

Thou who gavest me a living soul,
 give me that I receive not my soul in vain.

I believe that the Spirit gives grace in His sacred things ;
 give me that I receive not His grace in vain,

nor hope of His sacred things.

I believe that the Spirit intercedes for us
with plaints unutterable ;
grant me of His intercession and those plaints to partake, O Lord.

Our fathers hoped in Thee,
they trusted in Thee, and Thou didst deliver them.

They called upon Thee and were holpen, they put their trust in Thee, and were not confounded.

As Thou didst our fathers in the generations of old, so also deliver us, O Lord,
who trust in Thee.

O Heavenly King,
confirm our faithful kings,
stablish the faith,
soften the nations,
pacify the world,
guard well this holy retreat,
and receive us in orthodox faith and repentance,
as a kind and loving Lord.

The power of the Father guide me,
the wisdom of the Son enlighten me,

the working of the Spirit quicken me.

Guard Thou my soul,
stablish my body,
elevate my senses,
direct my converse,
form my habits,
bless my actions,
fulfil my prayers,
inspire holy thoughts,
pardon the past,
correct the present,
prevent the future.

(5.) PRAISE.

Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly
above all that we ask or think,
according to the power that worketh in us,
to Him be glory
in the Church in Christ unto all generations
world without end. Amen.

Blessed, and praised, and celebrated,
and magnified, and exalted, and glorified,
and hallowed,

be Thy Name, O Lord,
its record, and its memory,
and every memorial of it ;
the ever-honorable senate of the Patriarchs,
for the all-venerable band of the Prophets,
the all-glorious college of the Apostles,
the Evangelists,
the all-illustrious army of the Martyrs,
the Confessors,
the assembly of Doctors,
the Ascetics,
the beauty of Virgins,
for Infants the delight of the world,
for their faith, their hope,
their labors, their truth,
their blood, their zeal,
their diligence, their tears,
their purity, their beauty.
Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee, glory to Thee who didst glorify them,
among whom we too glorify Thee.
Great and marvellous are Thy works, Lord, the God Almighty ;
just and true are Thy ways, O King of Saints.

Who shall not fear Thee, O Lord, and glorify Thy Name ?
 for thou only art holy,
 for all the nations shall come and worship
 before Thee,
 for Thy judgments are made manifest.
 Praise our God, all ye His servants, and ye that fear Him,
 both small and great,
 Alleluia,
 for the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth ;
 let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to Him.
 Behold the tabernacle of God is with men,
 and He will dwell with them ;
 and they shall be His people,
 and God Himself shall be with them,
 and shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.
 And there shall be no more death ;
 neither crying, neither pain any more,
 for the former things are passed away.

Deprecations.

O Lord^a, Thou knowest, and canst, and willest
the good of my soul, Miserable man am I ;

I neither know, nor can, nor, as I ought,
will it.

Thou, O Lord, I beseech Thee,
in Thine ineffable effection,
so order concerning me,
and so dispose,

as Thou knowest to be most pleasing to Thee,
and most good for me.

[Thine is]

goodness, grace ;

love, kindness ;

whom Thou hast created, redeemed, regenerated.

Remember not, Lord, my sins, nor the sins of my forefathers ;

neither take vengeance for our sins, theirs, nor mine.

Spare us, Lord, them and me, spare Thy people,

and, among Thy people, Thy servant,

who is redeemed with Thy precious blood ;

and be not angry with us for ever.

Be merciful, be merciful ; spare us, Lord,

and be not angry with us forever.

Be merciful, be merciful ; have pity on us, Lord, and be not angry with us to the full.

Deal not, O Lord,

deal not with me after mine iniquities,

neither recompense me according to my sins ;

but after Thy great pity,

deal with me,

and according to the multitude of Thy mercies, recompense me ;

after that so great pity,

and that multitude of mercies,

as Thou didst to our fathers

in the times of old ;

by all that is dear unto Thee.

From all evil and adversity,
in all time of need ;
from this evil and this adversity,

from hearing the dreadful word, Depart from Me,
from being bound in chains of darkness,
from being cast into the outer darkness,
from being tormented in the pit of fire and brimstone, where the smoke of the torments ascendeth for ever.
Be merciful, be merciful,
spare us, pity us,
O Lord :
and destroy us not for ever,
deliver and save us.

Let it not be, O Lord ; and that it be not,
take away from me, O Lord,

ON CHRISTIAN DUTY.

What shall I do that I may inherit eternal life ?

Keep the commandments. Mark x. 17.

What shall we do ?

Repent and be baptized every one of you.

Acts ii. 37, 38.

What must I do to be saved ?

Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ. Acts xvi. 31.

What shall we do then ?

(To the multitude.) He who hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none.

He that hath meat, let him do likewise.

(To the publicans.) Exact no more than is appointed you.

(To soldiers.) Do violence to no man ; neither accuse any falsely ; be content with your wages.

Luke iii. 10-14.

and thus and thus have I done.

Alas, alas ! woe, woe.

How was I enticed by my own lust !

How I hated instruction !

Nor felt I fear nor shame

at Thy incomprehensible glory,

Thy awful presence,

Thy fearful power,

Thy exact justice,

Thy winning goodness.

I will call if there be any that will answer me ;

to which of the saints shall I turn ?

O wretched man than I am,

who shall deliver me from the body of this death ?

how fearful is Thy judgment, O Lord ?

when the thrones are set and Angels stand around,

and men are brought in,

the books opened,

the works enquired into,

the thoughts examined,

and the hidden things of darkness.

What judgment shall be upon me ?

who shall lighten my darkness,

if Thou pity me not?
Lord, as Thou art loving,
give me tears,
give me floods, give me to-day.
For then will be the incorruptible Judge,
the horrible judgment-seat,
the answer without excuses,
the inevitable charges,
the shameful punishment,
the endless Gehenna,
the pitiless Angels,
the yawning hell,
the roaring stream of fire,
the unquenchable flame,
the dark prison,
the rayless darkness,
the bed of live coals,
the unwearied worm,
the indissoluble chains,
the bottomless chaos,
the impassable wall,
the inconsolable cry,
none to stand by me,
none to plead for me,
none to snatch me out.

But I repent, Lord, O Lord, I repent, help Thou mine inpenitence,
and more, and still more,
pierce, rend, crush my heart.
Behold, O Lord, that I am indignant with myself,
for my senseless, profitless,
hurtful, perilous passions ;
that I loathe myself,
for these inordinate, unseemly, deformed, insincere,
shameful, disgraceful
passions,
that my confusion is daily before me,
and the shame of my face hath covered me.

Alas ! woe, woe—

O me, how long ?

Behold, Lord, that I sentence myself to punishment everlasting, yea, and all miseries of this world.
Behold me, Lord, self-condemned ; Behold, Lord, and enter not into judgment with Thy servant.

And now, Lord,

I humble myself under Thy mighty hand,

I bend to Thee, O Lord, my knees,
I fall on my face to the earth.
Let this cup pass from me !
I stretch forth my hands unto Thee ;
I smite my breast, I smite on my thigh.
Out of the deep my soul crieth unto Thee,
as a thirsty land ;
and all my bones,
and all that is within me.
Lord, hear my voice.

3.

ON HUMAN FRAILNESS.

Have mercy on me, Lord, for I am weak ;
remember, Lord, how short my time is ;
remember that I am but flesh.
a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.
My days are as grass, as a flower of the field ;
for the wind goeth over me, and I am gone,
and my place shall know me no more.
I am dust and ashes,
earth and grass,

flesh and breath,
corruption and the worm,
a stranger upon the earth, dwelling in a house of clay,
few and evil my days,
to-day, and not to-morrow,
in the morning, yet not until night,
in a body of sin,
in a world of corruption,
of few days, and full of trouble,
coming up, and cut down like a flower, and as a shadow, having no stay.
Remember this, O Lord, and suffer, remit ;
what profit is there in my blood,
when I go down to the pit ?
By the multitude of Thy mercies, by the riches and excessive redundancy of Thy pity ;
by all that is dear to Thee,
all that we should plead,
and before and beyond all things, by Thyself, by Thyself, O Lord, and by Thy Christ.
Lord, have mercy upon me, the chief of sinners.
O my Lord, let Thy mercy rejoice against Thy judgment in my sin.

O Lord, hear, O Lord, forgive,
O Lord, hearken,
O Lord, hearken and do,
do and defer not for Thine own sake,
defer not, O Lord my God.

For Holy Communion.

O Lord,

I am not worthy, I am not fit, that Thou shouldest come under the roof of my soul ;

for it is all desolate and ruined ;
nor hast Thou in me fitting place to lay Thy head.

But, as Thou didst vouchsafe to lie in the cavern and manger of brute cattle,
as Thou didst not disdain
to be entertained in the house of Simon the leper,
as Thou didst not disdain
that harlot, like me, who was a sinner, coming to Thee and touching thee ;
as Thou abhorredst not her polluted and loathsome mouth ;
nor the thief upon the cross confessing Thee :

So me too the ruined, wretched,
and excessive sinner,

deign to receive to the touch and partaking of the immaculate, supernatural, life-giving,

and saving mysteries

of Thy all-holy Body

and Thy precious Blood.

Listen, O Lord, our God,

from Thy holy habitation,

and from the glorious throne of Thy kingdom,

and come to sanctify us.

thou who sittest on high with the Father, and art present with us here invisibly ;

come Thou to sanctify the gifts which lie before Thee, and those in whose behalf, and by whom,

and the things for which, they are brought near Thee.

And grant to us communion,

unto faith without shame,

love without dissimulation, fulfilment of Thy commandments, alacrity for every spiritual fruit ;

hindrance of all adversity,

healing of soul and body ;

that we too, with all Saints, who have been well-pleasing to Thee from the beginning,
 may become partakers
 of Thy incorrupt and everlasting goods, which Thou hast prepared, O Lord, for them that love Thee ;
 in whom Thou art glorified
 for ever and ever.
 Lamb of God,
 that takest away the sin of the world,
 take away the sin of me,
 the utter sinner.

We then remembering, O sovereign Lord,
 in the presence of Thy holy mysteries, the salutary passion of Thy Christ,
 His life-giving cross,
 most precious death,
 three days' sepulture,
 resurrection from the dead,

ascent into heaven,
session at the right hand of Thee, the Father,
His fearful and glorious coming;
we beseech Thee, O Lord, that we, receiving in the pure testimony of our conscience,
our portion of Thy sacred things,
may be made one with the holy Body and Blood of Thy Christ;
and receiving them not unworthily,
we may hold Christ indwelling in our hearts, and may become a temple

Yea, O our God,
nor make any of us guilty of Thy dreadful and heavenly mysteries, nor infirm in soul or body from partaking of them unworthily.

But grant us
until our last and closing breath worthily to receive a hope of Thy holy things, for sanctification, enlightening, strengthening,
a relief to the weight of my many sins,
a preservative against all satanic working,
a riddance and hindrance of my evil conscience.

a mortification of my passions,
an appropriation of Thy commandments,
an increase of Thy divine grace;
and a securing of Thy kingdom.

* * * * *

It is finished and done,
so far as in our power, Christ our God,
the mystery of Thy dispensation.
For we have held remembrance of Thy death,
we have seen the figure of Thy resurrection,
we have been filled with Thy endless life,
we have enjoyed Thy unclaying dainties, which graciously vouchsafe all of us,
in the world to come.
Lord, the good God,
pardon every soul,
that purifieth his heart to seek God,
the Lord God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed
according to the purification of the sanctuary.

RICHARDSON'S REASONS.—The

Churchman's Reasons for his Faith and Practice, with an appendix on the Doctrine of Development, by the Rev. N. S. Richardson, A. M., Author of "Reasons why I am a Churchman," &c., &c., &c. One volume. 12mo. 75c.

CONTENTS. CHAPTER I—Introduction. II—The Church a Visible Society. III—The Ministry Christ's Positive Institution. IV—The Christian Ministry consisting of Three Orders. V—Same subject continued. VI—Same subject continued. VII—Developments of Modern Systems. VIII—The Unity of the Church, and the Sin and Evils of Schism. IX—Liturgies. X—Popular Objections against the Church answered. Appendix—Essay on the Doctrine of Development.

"We are glad to see this book. It is one of the kind which the age requires, and we are happy to believe, it is also seeking. There are earnest minds and honest hearts, in every religious denomination, who see the evils growing out of the divisions in Christendom, and who are seriously inquiring whether these things ought to be. The result of such an investigation, undertaken with such a purpose, can hardly be doubtful. It will be a conviction that 'God is not the author of confusion, but of order;' that He has instituted but one Body as the Church; and that all who are not in communion with this Body, of which Christ is the head, are in what the Scriptures call schism. Having arrived at this point, the vital question comes, what is the Church? Where can be found those signs of a Divinely organized Body, which, originating in the appointment of Christ, has continued to this day, and thus gives assurance that he has been with it according to his promise, is with it, and will continue to be with it, 'even unto the end of the world?' To those who are seeking for instruction, that their judgment may be guided to a right determination of this question, we recommend this timely book. The subject of it is, 'THE CHURCH OF GOD; ITS VISIBILITY, MINISTRY, UNITY, AND WORSHIP.'

"We are glad to see that the reverend author has devoted one chapter to the 'Developments of Modern Systems.' The argument derived from this subject is calculated more than any other, we think, to lead men to discover the errors and unsoundness, and insufficiency of those systems. They cannot stand, in the judgment of sober-minded seekers after truth, with their divisions, vacillations and heresies; before the Scriptural truth, Apostolic order, regular Succession, and uninterrupted continuance of the 'Holy Catholic Church.'"—Banner of the Cross.

RECANTATION.—Recantation, or, the Confessions of a Convert to Romanism. A Tale of Domestic and Religious Life in Italy. Edited by the Rev. Wm. Ingraham Kip. One handsome volume. 16mo. 63c.

"This volume is a reprint of one published in London during the last year. A friend placed it in the hands of the editor, because from his acquaintance with the scenes in which the story is laid, and the opportunities he had enjoyed of gaining some knowledge of the tone of thought and feeling prevailing in Italian society, it was believed he might be able to decide on the justness of its claims to be taken as a faithful picture. To the fidelity of the author's description of places, the Editor can bear his unhesitating testimony. Almost every page arrayed before him some scene associated with the pleasant hours he spent in classic Italy. The stately palaces of fascinating Florence—the woody hill of Fiesole, where Milton mused and wrote—the peaceful valleys of 'leafy Vallambrosa'—the animated walks of the Cascine—the treasures of the Pitti Palace—the splendor of the Ducal Court—the beautiful scenery of luxuriant Tuscany—all, are called up again to memory by the allusions of this narrative. And mingled with these came less pleasing remembrances of superstitions such as are here portrayed, and the surveillance of a religious despotism before which all trembled. The scoffing, infidel tone of some of these conversations is not imaginary. The Editor has himself heard it, when men uttered to him a foreigner, what they would not dare to speak to their own countrymen, and even then declared their unbelief in the system under which they were forced to live,

'in bondsmen's key,
With bated breath and whispering fearfulness.'

He feels, therefore, that the whole air of this work is truthful, and as such he would commend it to his young countrywomen."—Rev. W. I. Kip.

"This is a work of fiction. The subject of it was an English lady who abandoned the faith of the Church of England, which was in the way of her marriage with an Italian nobleman; the marriage was consummated; she lived unhappily; renounced her connection with the Church of Rome, and returned to her former faith. It will be a popular book, no doubt."—Benner of the Cross.

"The work has a peculiar interest, apart from its merits as a composition, and will be read probably by both Roman Catholics and Protestants."—Express

"We have been more deeply interested in this neatly got up and well printed volume than we had any expectation of when we commenced. It relates to a topic of great interest at the present time, and will, we trust, be the means of leading parents to consider the dangerous fascinations of Romism as presented by Jesuits and studied apologists, and how easily the ignorant are led to believe its lying absurdities. We beg to add our testimony to that of the accomplished editor of the volume in favor of its truthfulness and fairness. Indeed we might go much further and declare that from some slight acquaintance with Italian life and manners, we think the author has under stated the truth in regard to the practical infidelity of the better informed in the Romish Church. Such is certainly our opinion. However that maybe, we commend the volume to the thoughtful perusal of our readers."—Young Churchman's Miscellany.

"A seasonable and valuable work."—Evening Gazette.

"This is a beautifully printed volume. The title sufficiently explains the nature of the work, and the object for which it is designed."—Southern Churchman.

"Of the theology of this work, our neutrality forbids us to speak; but of its literary merits we can and must speak favorably. It is a tale of domestic and religious life in Italy, by one who has seen all that is here described. The allusions are redolent with classic sweets. The book is artistically got up by the trade."—N. Y. Sun.

"We have not read this work, but some of our Protestant friends, who have read it, say that it is a charming book; that it gives a more perfect insight into the interior of Italian society, than any book recently published; that the story is well told and the interest is maintained to the last; and that the lovers of fiction and the lovers of truth will be alike gratified by its perusal."—Louisville Journal.

SPENCER'S ENGLISH REFORMATION.—History of the Reformation in England, by the Rev. J. A. Spencer, A. M., "Author of the Christian Intructed in the ways of the Gospel and the Church." One Volume. 16mo. 50c.

"The author claims to have carefully sought exactness and precision in regard to facts and circumstances; to have consulted every writer within his reach, in order to verify the statement made in the text, to have endeavored to be strictly just and fair towards all parties and persons; and to have set forth the public acts of the Church and State as faithfully as he was able, and as fully as the limits of the volume would admit." We regard it as of especial importance at this time, that the causes which led to the reformation of the Church in England, should be well understood. There are many persons to whom the larger histories of it are not accessible, and who would not have time to study them if they were. To such, and to the young learner, this little book of 200 pages will impart much useful information upon that interesting era in the history of the Church." —Banner of the Cross.

"A judicious and faithful treatise on the Reformation in England, admirably adapted for families and for Sunday School libraries. Although altogether unpretending, it is precisely one of the books most fitted to do good, in the times upon which we have fallen. It tells the truth, clearly, fairly, and honestly. * * * When such desperate and unceasing efforts are made all around us to villify the Reformation, it is the duty of every Churchman not only to inform himself on the subject, but to see that the truth is brought to bear upon the minds of his children, who may soon be called to a fiercer and more earnest struggle to maintain it than any to which he himself is summoned.—Protestant Churchman.

"An acceptable contribution to ecclesiastical literature. The author throws into contrast the leading principles of Protestantism with the past and existing elements of Romanism, and exhibits their opposite tendencies with much force. The historical portion of the work is, from the size of the volume, necessarily much condensed. The prominence given to the great principles involved, however, atones for this, while as a portable and not expensive volume, it will reach those to whom larger works of the kind are inaccessible." —N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

"This is a most opportune publication. The times demand a return to the principles of the great Reform, and the people are laudably anxious to know what those principles are. So much discussion is abroad, so many various assertions are made, and so much confidence is manifested by persons of very different sentiments in the truth of their opinions, that it is essential to go to the fountain head and ascertain by the facts of history just where and what the truth really is. It is this object which the author of this volume has had in view; it has been his aim to present facts, and not mere opinions, to give evidence, and not barely his view of the Reformation and its principles. It is this feature which we particularly admire in this volume, and which we commend especially to our readers; for though Mr. Spencer's own views are decided, he does not obtrude them upon those who peruse his history; he gives them a succinct, clear, well-digested statement of the acts of the Church and State, and leaves the reader to draw his own conclusion. We are not aware that in a single instance Mr. S. oversteps the true bounds by which the historian ought to be restrained.

"The literary and mechanical execution of this volume are of the first order. Mr. S. writes easily, fluently and vigorously, and occasionally his subject warms into eloquence. The publishers deserve great credit for the style in which they have issued the book, not more than for the very low price at which they offer it for sale, in order, we are confident, to give it that wide circulation which the momentous nature of the subject demands."—N. Y. Gazette & Times.

WYATT'S PARTING SPIRIT'S ADDRESS.—

The Parting Spirit's Address to his Mother, by the Rev. Wm. Edward Wyatt, D. D., Rector of St. Paul's parish, Baltimore. Fourth edition. One volume. 18mo. paper. 13c.

"We regard this as one of the most touching and beautiful things which we have ever read; equally sound and judicious, it is calculated to diffuse comfort through the mourning home which has been bereft of some bright flower transplanted from this sterile earth to the Paradise of God."—Young Churchman's Miscellany.

"A fourth edition of this beautiful and tender little thing has been issued. Every parent who has lost an engaging little child, will read this admirable little tract with lively interest."—Albany Spectator.

PERRANZABULOE;—The Lost Church Found, or, the Church of England not a new Church, but Ancient, Apostolic, and Independent, and a Protesting Church, nine hundred years before the Reformation. One volume. 12mo. 75c.

"A further examination of this work has confirmed our opinion, and made us desire to reiterate our testimony, that it is truly a Protestant History, written in a most attractive style. When we first saw it, we did not suppose it was possible for any one to invest so threadbare a subject with any degree of novel interest. But we were mistaken, and we are glad to be able to express the opinion, that the publishers have done well to select it. The title is singular but most appropriate, and the incidents connected with it are most ingeniously made the basis of the whole history."—Episcopal Recorder.

"We trust all our readers will forthwith buy this book and read it. It will furnish an effectual antidote to all the heretical trash palmed upon the unwary, the evident intention of which is to palliate Roman corruption on the specious ground of CHARITY"—Protestant Churchman.

"Clear in its style and sound in its influence, it is a complete Protestant history, written by one who has invested the almost threadbare subject with a novel interest, and it is well calculated as an antidote to the many heretical volumes which have from time to time fascinated the unwary and led the mind captive to corrupt and unscriptural doctrines."—Boston Evening Transcript.

"It is an interesting book to all interested in antiquities, Church history and polity."—N. Y. Gazette.

HOBART'S STATE OF THE DEPARTED.—The State of the Departed, by John Henry Hobart, D. D. Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New-York. Fourth Edition. One volume. 12mo. 50c.

"This little volume, pp. 129, contains an address delivered by Bishop Hobart, at the funeral of Bishop Moore, of New-York, in 1816; also, a 'Dissertation on the State of Departed Spirits, and the Descent of Christ into Hell;' written by Bishop Hobart, in consequence of exceptions having been taken to his funeral address. The dissertation is published as last revised by the Right Reverend author. Those who wish to inform themselves upon this subject, will find in this book as good a treatise upon it as they will probably ever meet with."—Banner of the Cross.

"The larger portion of this volume is occupied by 'A Dissertation on the State of Departed Spirits, and the Descent of Christ into Hell'—in which that subject is discussed with much clearness of statement, and fulness and force of reasoning—presenting the whole argument on the side adopted by the Bishop with an effect and in a compass not elsewhere, we believe, to be found in our language."—Southern Churchman.

"Perhaps the best dissertation on the very important question as to the state of the departed, is this one of the lamented Bishop Hobart, in which the whole subject is thoroughly examined."—Providence Atlas.

"The publishers of this valuable work have at last given us an edition in a style something like what its merits demand. As it forms one of the volumes prescribed by the House of Bishops in the course of study for candidates for Holy Orders, it is quite superfluous for us to commend it."—Young Churchman's Miscellany.

"This work of the late Bishop Hobart, is published at a very seasonable time, when every doctrine of the Church is called in question. It was occasioned by the Bishop's sermon on the death of his predecessor, Bishop Moore of New-York, and is an unanswerable defence of the doctrine of the intermediate state. Extracts are given as well from the writings of Dissenters as from those of the Anglican Church; and the distinction between it and the Romish doctrine of purgatory is clearly pointed out. The present edition is beautifully got up, the paper excellent, and the type clear and good; and as the work itself is used as a text book in the General Theological Seminary of the Church, we have no doubt the sale thereof will be even more rapid than it has been from its first appearance, and speedily repay the firm who have issued it in so creditable a style."—National Press.

MARGARET; OR THE PEARL. By the Rev. Charles B. Tayler, author of "Lady Mary," "Records of a Good Man's Life," &c., &c. In one handsome volume. 75c.

"A good book may be compared to a dear and faithful friend, always welcome, and lending its influence to cheer and freshen the pathway of life. To this class the writings of the pious and gifted author of the present volume justly belong. The favorable reception, by a discerning public, of two of the works of the Rev. Mr. Tayler, recently issued from their press, has encouraged the publishers to add a third; confidently believing that the valuable instructions and examples abounding in it, apart from the great interest of the narrative itself, will render 'Margaret' no unfit companion to 'The Records of a Good Man's Life,' and 'Lady Mary.' All three are worthy a place in every family and parish library."—Publishers' Preface.

"Those who have read 'Lady Mary,' and 'The Records of a Good Man's Life,' will be anxious to peruse this volume. It is one of those gems of religious fiction, which teach truth in a manner equally calculated to inform the mind and impress the heart, without exciting appeals to the imagination, or unwholesome stimulants to the religious sensibilities."—Protestant Churchman.

"It is unnecessary to say, except to those who are unacquainted with this gifted author's other writings, that the volume is both highly instructive and attractive."—Southern Churchman.

"A pleasing narrative of pride and wealth subdued to suffering and humiliation, and false opinions overcome by faith in Christ. Nothing could be more proper and Christian-like than the tone and temper of this little volume, which will be read by the religious with pleasure and profit. It is very prettily sent forth by the American publishers."—Southern Patriot.

"The typography and general appearance of the volume is highly creditable to the publishers."—Albany Evening Journal.

WHAT IS CHRISTIANITY.—By Thomas Vowler Short. One volume. 12mo. 50c.

"Indistinctness on religious subjects is a great evil, particularly to the young; but theological clearness does not always lead to Christian edification and practical holiness. It has been the endeavor of the author to combine distinct views on the leading tenets of Christianity with that earnestness, without which religion is apt to dwindle into a mere form. He has tried to place before his readers not words only, but ideas—to give them that which might guide them in the path to heaven—to impress on them the fundamental truths of our holy faith—and to point out how this faith should show forth its effects in the occurrences of life."

PAY THY VOWS, A Pastoral Address Subsequent to Confirmation. By the late Rev. G. T. Bedell, D. D., Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Philadelphia. Edited, with additions, by his Son, Rev. G. Thurston Bedell, Rector of the Church of the Ascension. New-York. A beautiful miniature edition. 32mo. 31c.

"Dr. Bedell's name is too well known to require any commendation at our hands; even those who disagreed with him in some theological views, never doubted his deep and hearty striving to win souls to Christ, nor ever were unimpressed with the fact of his being in earnest in what he said and did. The value of the address is much enhanced by the additions made by the present Rector of the Church of the Ascension."—Young Churchman's Miscellany.

"It earnestly advocates the sound doctrine, that confirmation is a ratification of the baptismal vows made by the sponsors, and is, therefore, necessarily a formal adoption of the Christian profession. The many admirers of Dr. Bedell, when living, will find in this book all that pastoral simplicity and warm earnestness of manner for which he was so celebrated."—Evening Gazette.

"Pay thy Vows is a pastoral address intended for those who have recently gone through the solemn rite of Confirmation, which may be read with advantage and instruction."—Southern Patriot

THE RENUNCIATION : An Essay on Worldly Amusements. By the late Rev. G. T. Bedell, D. D. Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Philadelphia. With an Introductory Notice by his Son. Uniform with the above. 31c.

"This republication is calculated to do great good. The faithful expositions of Christian duty which it contains, are recommended by the fervent, tender, and persuasive eloquence in which they are conveyed. The introductory notice by the son of the author, contains some valuable and impressive views on the subjects of the Essay, with quotations from some of the Bishops of the Church of England and our own Church. We trust the volume will be extensively circulated and read."—Protestant Churchman.

"A thoughtful and instructive religious essay, the object of which is to impress upon the devoutly-minded the impropriety and inconsistency of communicants engaging in what are called the amusements of the age. The burden, or text of the essay, is drawn from the language of the Sponsor—'I renounce the vain pomp and glory of the world.' It is very neatly printed, in a delicate pocket volume."—Southern Patriot.

WAINWRIGHT'S PRAYERS.—An Order of Family Prayer for every Day in the Week. By the Rev. J. M. Wainwright, D. D., Assistant Minister of Trinity Church, New-York. One beautiful volume. 12mo. 75 cents.

"From the opportunity we have had to examine and use this addition to our list of aids to devotion, we are led to regard it as a very useful contribution."—Gospel Messenger.

"It gives not only an appropriate form of prayer for every day in the week, and for the various special occasions that present themselves, in the progress of family life, but also well chosen selections from the Scriptures, for reading; and is, in fact, an adaptation of the Episcopal liturgy to family wants and aptitudes. The supplications, partly original, but mainly compiled from old devotional writers, breathe throughout a fine spirit of humility and earnestness; and the language is at once chaste, eloquent, and reverential."—N. Y. Com. Advertiser.

BERRIAN'S PRAYERS.—Family and Private Prayers. By the Rev. William Berrian, D. D. Rector of Trinity Church, New-York. Fourth edition. One handsome duodecimo volume. Large type. 75c.

"In this large and well-executed volume, Dr. Berrian has furnished all who love the Liturgy and the spirit of the Prayer Book, with a most valuable manual; valuable alike for its freedom from all irreverent and unseemly familiarity of approach to the throne of grace, and for its deep and glowing fervor of devotion to God. * *

* Dr. Berrian's manual will rank among the first, if not the first, and from its copiousness will, we are persuaded, furnish all classes of minds with food suitable for their soul's health and comfort."—Young Churchman's Miscellany.

"The present edition of this manual has been newly arranged and materially enlarged. Most of the additions which have been made to it consist of Ancient Litanies, purified from all taint of superstition and error, and presenting a perfect embodiment of Christian truth expressed in the most fervent strain of devotion. The other parts have been drawn from the writings of the earlier divines of the Church of England, and other rare and curious sources. The quaintness, the redundancy, and rhapsody with which they were for the most part disfigured, have been carefully rejected; and the richness, the fullness, the depth of feeling and glow of expression most scrupulously retained. The impression is felt, however, that it will still be too earnest and fervid for the lukewarmness and apathy of the present age."

SHORT'S CHURCH HISTORY.—History of the Church of England, to the revolution of England of 1683, by the Rt. Rev. Thomas Vowler Short, D.D., Bishop of St. Asaph. One Volume. 8vo. $1,50.

"We feel grateful for the reprint of this learned, impartial, and valuable work. The publishers of such books deserve to be liberally sustained and encouraged by the Christian public, and especially by Churchmen. Bishop Short's History will lead its readers to a greater knowledge and love of the English Church, and must convince them that in her doctrines, ritual, and government, she is faithfully formed on the model of that which was primitive and apostolic. It is the fruit of many years' reading and immense labor and research, and, though its professed object is 'to facilitate the studies of young men who are preparing themselves for the offices of the Church,' there is no class of readers who will not find it a pleasure and a profit. It may be objected to by some that the meek and pious author is occasionally too lenient in his notice of dissenters; but he never conceals the truth, (evidently his sole pursuit;) and the very tenderness he shows to opponents may extend the usefulness of the work, by attracting and conciliating readers among them, and, we may hope, convincing them that, in the language of the author, 'the best reformation of the Church of England would be to reduce her in practice to what she is in theory; that her doctrines are such, that he who ventures his eternal safety to her guidance is taking a secure path; and that the framework of her establishment is that which, under God's providence, is best suited, in the present state of the Christian world, to preserve and disseminate our holy faith among the various branches of society.'"—Banner of the Cross.

"This is a very valuable production. It has passed through three English editions; and now appears for the first time in an American dress. Its issue at this juncture is exceedingly well timed."—Episcopal Recorder.

"This is the book as interesting to the general reader as to one specially interested in the remarkable history it develops and extends. It is written, as far as we can judge from a hasty glance at it, in a liberal, comprehensive, and Christian spirit, not sparing the defects of the Church of England, and not failing to give credit to other sects where the writer has thought it was due to them. The typography and general appearance of the book are creditable to the taste of the enterprising publishers."—Philadelphia Gazette.

"We welcome this elaborate and valuable work as a most important addition to the series of Protestant publications from the press of Messrs. Stanford and Swords. This edition is a large octavo of 350 pages, very well printed. It is enriched with numerous notes, several chronological and genealogical tables, and a copious index."—North American.

CONFIRMATION.—A Manual of Devotions, for Confirmation and First Communion. By the author of "Steps to the Altar." Edited, with Preface and Notes, by a Presbyter of the Church. 18mo. 31c.

"This volume appears under the sanction of an able and faithful Pastor, who assures us that he has carefully examined it, making a very few alterations, and additions; and that he deems it the very best work of the kind he has seen. A hasty perusal leads us to concur in this opinion. It differs from most books on Confirmation, in being almost exclusively practical and devotional in its character, containing besides, two Addresses, Prayers, Meditations, and Questions for self-examination for the week preceding, and the two days subsequent to, the reception of the Holy Rite. * * * The volume is neatly got up; and the Publishers deserve the thanks of good Churchmen for issuing another manual of sound catholic—Hobart—teaching."—Churchman.

"The multiplication of books of devotion we regard as one of the best signs of the times in the Church. There is evidently an increased demand for such works as aid in the cultivation of personal religion. The title of the present publication sufficiently indicates its design and use. The Prayers and Meditations which it contains are compiled mostly from Bishop Wilson, which is a sufficient guarantee of their soundness and fervor. Some others are taken from various approved writers of our own Communion. We take pleasure in recommending it to our readers, and especially as a valuable preparatory manual for such as are about to receive Confirmation and the Holy Communion for the first time."—Calendar.

SERMONS ON CONFIRMATION, AND
AN ADDRESS DELIVERED AFTER ADMINISTERING THAT HOLY AND APOSTOLIC RITE.

BY THE LATE

RT. REV. THEODORE DEHON, D. D.

BISHOP OF THE DIOCESE OF SOUTH-CAROLINA.

PUBLISHED BY PERMISSION OF THE "PROTESTANT
OF CHRISTIANITY IN SOUTH-CAROLINA."

One volume. 18mo. 13 cents.

HAPPINESS OF THE BLESSED considered as to the particulars of their state; their recognition of each other in that state; and its difference of degrees. To which are added, Musings on the Church and her Services. By Richard Mant, D. D., Lord Bishop of Down and Connor. One volume. 12mo. 75c.

"We would have this volume find its way into every Christian family where there is one person that can read. If scriptural truth and warm devotion can commend a book, this will not be neglected.

"Bishop Mant as a poet is not duly appreciated. Whether this arises from a distaste for the Sonnet, or from an idea that he has merely imitated Wordsworth, it is equally a mistake. His sonnets are generally carefully constructed, and seldom lacking in elevation of sentiment. They sometimes, it is true, are not so well compacted and pointed as the form requires, but this is owing to the didactic tone which many of their subjects necessitate. Above all they are full of the genuine Anglican feeling which Wordsworth often does not display. The reader of the 'Musings' will, we think, feel that this series is more animated by a Church spirit than Wordsworth's."—Churchman.

"Sound in doctrine, rich in thought, beautiful in style, and devotional in its character, this work ranks among the choicest specimens of English Theological literature. It has already become endeared to thousands of Christian Churchmen, with whom, like 'Scenes in our Parish,' and the 'Christian Year,' it is a household volume."—Calendar.

MANT'S HORÆ LITURGICÆ. Being a Guide to Uniformity in the Celebration of Divine Service. By the Rt. Rev. Richard Mant, D. D., Lord Bishop of Down and Connor. With Additions to adapt it to the American Church, by the Rev. W. D. Wilson, M. A. One Volume. 12mo. 75c.

"We earnestly commend this volume to the attention of the clergy of the Church, as a work the want of which has been long felt, particularly in this country. Bishop Mant has ably fulfilled the task imposed upon himself, and the Notes and Additions of the American editor are judicious and commendable. We trust that those who are just entering upon their sacred calling, will give heed to the counsels of this volume, that they may begin aright, and that the beautiful fabric of our liturgy, bequeathed by the noble army of martyrs and confessors, may present that beauty of uniformity which they intended, undisturbed by the crude notions of those who would gild refined gold or paint the lily."

MARK WILTON ; Or, The Merchant's Clerk

By the Rev. Charles B. Tayler, author of "Lady Mary,"

"Records of a Good Man's Life," etc. 12mo. 75c.

"The pictures of individuals and families are so life-like, the various shades of character so finely and accurately drawn, that the reader's attention is rivetted from first to last. The narrative is autobiographical, and is written with such an air of candor, and interspersed with reflections so natural to the incidents, that it is really difficult to divest one's self of the impression that it is truth and not fiction. In one respect we think 'Mark Wilton' is even superior to the author's former productions—the fourfold phase of character exhibited in the narrative is preserved with astonishing fidelity and clearness. These are exemplified in the character of a family of high worldly integrity; of another, whose whole domestic discipline is regulated by the elevated precepts of Christian character; of a young man, a fellow clerk of Wilton's, remarkable for his decision and firmness of Christian character; and of Mark Wilton, easily seduced from virtue, lacking strength to resist example and vicious influences, often wandering far from rectitude, yet again impulsive for good when arrested in his downward path. The subordinate characters serve to make apparent these distinctions. We would that the book were carefully read by all for whom it is especially designed—the clerks in a great city.—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

LADY MARY ; Or, Not of the World. By the Rev. Charles B. Tayler, author of "Mark Wilton,"

"Margaret, or the Pearl," etc. 12mo. 75c.

"We take great pleasure in calling attention to this most excellent volume, which must meet with a wide circulation. The style is beautifully simple, the narrative abounds with interesting incidents, and the whole is imbued with a tone of the highest evangelical piety. The writer has a happy faculty of adapting himself to the comprehension of the young, at the same time that he instructs and entertains the old. It would make an appropriate present for the young, and may be the means of doing great good. Mr. Tayler, as far as we have had opportunity to judge, is quite as interesting a writer as Charlotte Elizabeth, and far less bigoted and prejudiced. Such volumes as these cannot be too widely spread."—Evening Post.

"We are pleased to see a third American edition of this delightful volume, than which few fictions are more like real life, and none can have a better effect upon the heart. The fidelity with which the inconsistencies of Christians in the most favored worldly circumstances are portrayed in this volume cannot fail to have a salutary influence, while the narrative is of such an interest as to induce more than one reading."—Commercial.
